Person Note for Jeremiah Shaw Jr.

First thing to put in these notes is that though we have a lot of circumstantial evidence that Betsey Fitch is the daughter of our John Fitch of Wyoming (Luzerne) Co., PA, we have no actual evidence that can positively mesh them together. So in this we are "assuming" it is so.

"Jeremiah Shaw, a native of Bristo. County, Rhode Island, born February 2, 1730, came to Sheshequin with his family in 1786. He married Abigail Campbell and in 1772 removed to the state of New York serving his country in the struggle for independence. Seeking better opportunities, he went to Wilkes-Barre, where he remained only a few weeks, when through the persuasion of General Spalding, he decided to locate in Sheshequin.

He accordingly secured a boat, took his family on board with such effects as he had and came up the river, requiring a journey of several days. He settled the present Kinner farm, performing the part of a true pioneer, where his life came to a close May 29, 1815.

His wife died March 19, 1811, aged 64 years. The children of Jeremiah and Abigail Shaw are:

Esther, Jedediah, Hannah, Ebenezer, Jeremiah, Benjamin, Lorin, Abigail, Phoebe and Deborah.

This account gives no indication that there had been a previous marriage in which some of the children were born.

The above account gives us a start on the time line for Jeremiah, husband of Betsey Fitch:

1764: Jeremiah Sr. married Abigail Campbell as his 2nd wife

1772: Went to New York with his family; served during the Revolution

1780: Jeremiah, Jr. was born (Jeremiah born in New York)

1786: Came to Wilkes-Barre, just weeks, and then Sheshequin, Luzerne Co., PA

1803: Marriage to Betsey Fitch while still in Sheshequin

1806: A letter for Jeremiah Shaw was at the Athen's P. O. (could be father also)

1815: Father, Jeremiah, Sr. died in Sheshequin

_____: Jeremiah removes to Canandaigua, New York. Do not know the date. (may be before 1810 according to _____ census. His son, Fitch Shaw, indicates on his census reports that he was born in New York as do the other children whose reports I can find.

1843: Jeremiah Jr. dies in Gorham, Ontario Co., New York

1846: Wife, Betsy dies in June of 1846 in Gorham. Both are buried there in Lord's Cemetery.

Possible Jr. or Sr.

From Heverly's "Pioneer and Patriot Families of Bradford, Co., Pennsylvania":

Vol 1, page 142.....Jeremiah Shaw, son of Jeremiah Shaw and Abigail Campbell.
"Jeremiah removed to near Canandaigua, New York, where he married and reared a family."

.....
The actual transcription of the newspaper article on the marriage says this:
"JEREMIAH SHAW, JUN. married to MISS BETSEY FITCH, on the 5th inst (same month as reported), at Sheshequin, by Rev'd Elisha Hutchinson, both of Sheshequin"

From Benton Biographies: Benton, Yates Co., New York

Jeremiah Shaw, born in 1780, married BETSEY FITCH of Sheshequin. They settled on what was known as the Ryres' tract in Milo, where they lived about 15 years, and as much longer in Barrington, when they removed to Gorham where he died in 1843 and she in 1846, leaving eight children:

THERESA, FITCH, LYDIA, LUCY, GORE, LAURA, GUY, MARTHA, and EDGAR.

Theresa married Job Pierce of Middlesex and died there without surviving children.
Fitch married Mary Kinney of Benton and emigrated to Battle Creek, Michigan.

    Their children are Charles and Mary.

Lydia died single.

Lucy married Stephen Ferguson of Gorham, where they reside.

    Their children are George, Ellen, Charles, Gertrude, Frank, Monroe, and Adelbert.

Gore Shaw married Adaline Beacon of Jerusalem, and settled at Hornellsville, where she died leaving 3 children:

    Olive, Laura, and Cornelia.

Laura married Hiram Thomson and settled in Constantine, Michigan, where she died leaving two children:

    Josephine and Adelaide

Dates given:

    Jeremiah Shaw III, 1780-1843

    Teresa Shaw, 1804- ?

    Fitch Shaw, 1806- ?

    Lydia Shaw, 1809-1835

    Abby Lucy Shaw, 1811 - ?

    Gore Shaw, 1814 - 1880

    Laura Shaw, 1817 - ?

    Guy Shaw, 1822 - ?

    Wealthy Shaw 1823 - ?

    Edgar Shaw, 1825 - ?

Lydia Shaw died before the parents. So though they had 9 children, one was gone before they died.

Will of Jeremiah Shaw.....1843, Gorham, Ontario County, New York

Some report that Jeremiah was a twin. More info needed on that. (yes, Jedediah)

A family is listed for Jeremiah and Betsy on LDS IGI and found on Family Search.

Jeremiah Shaw, born 1780, died in 1843 and he was called "of New York" as were all of the rest of the family. We know from above that they moved to New York "where he married".....but marriage was listed in Luzerne Co., PA. Betsy Fitch, born about 1784, of Sheshequin, Bradford Co., PA, so assumption is that they were married in Sheshequin, before going to New York. (Notice that says "of" )

Marriage gives as about 1805 of New York.....We have June 5, 1803 as reported in Luzerne PA newspapers with slightly differing dates for the births of the children.

1. Theresa Shaw, born about 1807.....of New York
2. Fitch Fitz Shaw, born 1808.....born New York
3. Lydia Shaw, born about 1810.....of New York
4. Lucy Shaw, born about 1812.....of New York
5. Gore Shaw, born about 1815.....of Yates, New York
6. Laura Shaw, born about 1817.....of Barrington, Yates, New York
7. Unavailable
8. Martha Shaw, born about 1822.....of Barrington, Yates, New York
9. Edgar Shaw, born 1824.....of Barrington, Yates, New York

I notice here that none of the Fitch family names of our PA Fitch family are used here as names for these children. Need to find out what happened to some of them and where there descendants might have gone. It is possible that Betsey was the daughter of another Fitch. I will add these as children as they probably are the children of Jeremiah and Betsey, but may not be the grandchildren of our John Fitch.

I have two listings of children and they do not all agree but will add all of the ones I find for now.

We find probably our Jeremiah Shaw as a Commissioner of Highways, in the town of Barrington, Yates Co., New York. He was elected to this position in February 24, 1823. We note that some of the children were possibly born there.

1810 Census of Yates County, New York

Jeremiah Shaw, #146a, Benton, Yates Co., New York

Jeremiah Shaw, #147, Benton, Yates Co., New York
Benjamin Shaw, #146, Benton, Yates Co., New York
Samuel Shaw, #148a, Benton, Yates Co., New York
William Shaw, #175, Jerusalem, Yates Co., New York

If one of these Jeremiah's is our Jeremiah, then the family was probably there for the birth of most of the children. We know that Jeremiah is listed as one of the commissioners when they set up the town of Barrington so was well enough known to be a public servant in 1823.

Actual 1810 census is probably as follows: tho the transcription says Benton, Oneida, NY it may still be Yates

Jer'h Shaw.....10010 20010
1 male under 10 .....1800 to 1810 .....Fitch
1 male 26 to 44 .....1766 to 1784 .....Jeremiah
2 females under 10.....1800 to 1810.....Theresa, Lydia
1 female 26 to 44 .....1766 to 1784.....Betsey

We also find brother, Benjamin living in the same town

Cemetery information: Lords Cemetery, Gorham, Ontario County, New York Row 8

46. Shaw, Jeremiah, died Feb. 24, 1843, 64 years
(s/o Jeremiah & Phebe (Wilbore) Shaw) (this is an error as he was the son of Jeremiah, Jr. and

Abigail Ball Shaw. Perhaps the person who wrote this information some time ago did not have all the facts. There were 3 Jeremiah's in a row here:

Jeremiah Shaw (born 1700) and Phebe Wilbore

Jeremiah Shaw II (born 1729) and Abigail Ball

Jeremiah Shaw III (born 1780) and Betsey Fitch

47. Shaw, Betsy, died Jan. 26, 1846, 63 years, 7 months, 23 days
(w/o Jeremiah Shaw)

48. Shaw, Lydia, died May 22, 1835, 26 years
(d/o Jeremiah and Betsy Shaw)

Other information about this cemetery is that it had been in bad condition, surveyed several times, but in using the census and all the transcriptions that they made of the cemetery, they came up with one they think is pretty accurate. Also that since 1995 a lot of the stones have been damaged or destroyed by vandalism. So a good thing they got the information from them when they did. Surveys were done from 1965 to 1995.

Two land contracts or deeds that could be looked up for more information was

Jeremiah Shaw and wife to Elijah Townsend //2//87 (no explanation of these symbols)

Person Note for Betsey Fitch

Our aim is to find proof that this Betsey Fitch is actually the daughter of John and Mary (Molly Fitch). So far it is all circumstantial evidence, but quite compelling.

June 5, 1803.. Jeremiah Shaw, Jr., Sheshequin, married Betsey Fitch

Found in records of marriages and deaths published in Wilkes-Barre Gazette, Dec. 5, 1797 to Dec. 8, 1800 and Luzerne Co. Federalist, Jan. 12, 1801 to Dec. 28, 1809, published in Wilkes-Barre, PA. Proceedings of Wyoming Historical and Geological Society, Vol. 7, page 211.

Is she the daughter of John and Molly Fitch who was baptized in Stamford, recorded there in the St. John Episcopal Church as Betsey Fitch, dau. of John and Molly Fitch of Norwalk? The baptism took place May 20, 1784. The same day that Betsey was baptized there was also a baptism of two other children, one of Samuel Fitch and Olive (no doubt Olive Stewart or Stuart) of Norwalk, and a child of John Lockwood and Eunice, who was probably the brother of Elizabeth Lockwood and Eunice, his second wife. (or of her nephew who John, who also married a Eunice) The dates and the timing are right. All are from Norwalk. And Samuel and Olive lived at Chestnut Hill, just north of Poplar Plains where John Fitch had land. They all would have been neighbors and relatives.

The actual transcription of the newspaper article says this: "JEREMIAH SHAW, JUN. married to MISS BETSEY FITCH, on the 5th inst (same month as reported), at Sheshequin, by Rev'd Elisha Hutchinson, both of Sheshequin" Reported June 18, 1803.

This leads to more wondering if she was the daughter of our John Fitch because:

- They were married at Sheshequin

- They were both of Sheshequin

- Sheshequin is now in Bradford County, PA

This was reported in the LUZERNE COUNTY FEDERALIST newspaper. This newspaper at the time gave news of the whole county of Luzerne, of which Sheshequin was still a part at that time, 1803.

Questions??

- Could Betsey Fitch if she was the dau. of our John have gone with some family to work or

- housekeep in Sheshequin??? If she was the one born in 1784 she would have been 19 at

- time of this marriage. Perhaps gone to work at the age of 16 or so. Many young daughters

- are found in the homes of other families as household help.

Or Jeremiah may have traveled down the river and visited the Tunkhannock area where the Fitches lived, and met Betsey on one of his visits. They were not that far apart.

Or was Betsey of a another Fitch family living in Sheshequin?? There were some Fitches but could not find a daughter named Elizabeth among them.

Somewhere I found that a Jeremiah Shaw had gone to Wilkes-Barre area for a time.

There were several Shaw families living in close to John Fitch in the early days. A Comfort Shaw family.

Apparently Jeremiah Shaw's father moved to Sheshequin and did not stay near Wilkes-Barre.

In the early days Sheshequin was a part of Luzerne County.
The early papers of Luzerne give much on the folks at Sheshequin.
Though I tried to find where Rev. Elisha Hutchinson was a pastor, I could not find him listed as one who was in Sheshequin. Perhaps he was a traveling pastor at that time and just moved from place to place.
Though we did not find anything to say for sure that Betsey belonged to John and Mary (Molly) Fitch of PA, we also did not find anything that would prohibit that fact.

If the children as listed in the LDS IGI belong to these two, and supposedly they do, then none of the names are common to the Fitch family of PA.....listed as children were: Theresa, Fitch, Lydia, Lucy, Gore, Laura, Martha, Edgar. Added later Guy and Wealthy Ann. (Possibly Lydia was. See notes under Lydia Fitch)
.....

Cemetery information: Lords Cemetery, Gorham, Ontario County, New York Row 8

46. Shaw, Jeremiah, died Feb. 24, 1843, 64 years
(s/o Jeremiah & Phebe (Wilbore) Shaw) (this is an error as he was the son of Jeremiah, Jr. and

Jeremiah Shaw III (born 1780) and Betsey Fitch

47. Shaw, Betsy, died Jan. 26, 1846, 63 years, 7 months, 23 days
(w/o Jeremiah Shaw) Would make her birthdate about June of 1782.....our Betsey was bapt.

May 20, 1784

48. Shaw, Lydia, died May 22, 1835, 26 years
(d/o Jeremiah and Betsy Shaw)

About birthday given in online references: Betsey's birthdate of June 3, 1782 is probably figured by the age they gave her when she died. I don't know if this is on the tombstone or just in the records, but figuring back from 63 years, 7 months, and 23 days, you come up with the June 3, 1782 date. Any on line records may have done just the same. This seems a little early for her to have been baptized in May of 1784. And it conflicts the given birth of Nathaniel Fitch of February 1782. However, I have seen Nathaniel's date given as February 1781 also, so his birthdate is not exactly certain either. Since there are no other children listed between Gideon, 1771, and Nathaniel of 1782, there are no other conflicts. A year off on either Nathaniel or Betsey would not be too unusual and fit in fine.

PROS AND CONS for the case of Betsey being the daughter of our John Fitch of Falls, PA:

Our Betsey was baptised May 20, 1784 at Stamford as the d/o John and Molly Fitch

This Betsey was born by burial records age dates - June 3, 1782 (dates are notoriously bad on tombstone readings)(Conflict here because Nathaniel was born Feb. 12, 1782) (or 1781)

Our Betsey's parents were living near Falls, several miles south of Sheshequin at the time of the marriage.

This Betsey was married June 5, 1803 in Luzerne Co., PA (would have been married in Sheshequin, several miles north in what later became Bradford Co.)

There were some Fitches living in Sheshequin, but do not find an Elizabeth/Betsey recorded.

None of the children of Jeremiah and Betsey seem to carry a first name that the Fitch family used unless it was Lydia. However do not see many Shaw names either so may not mean anything.

Gore would have come from the maternal side of the Shaw family.

We are using the fact that hopefully the Betsey who belonged to John and Molly belongs to our John Fitch family. We have no proof of that except that this Betsey was baptised the same place and the same day that Samuel and Olive Fitch, and John Lockwood and Eunice had a child baptised - both would have been close neighbors and relatives of our John Fitch.

So many things can be wrong with this scenario.

John and Molly Fitch could be of another family and it was coincidence of the baptisms.

Betsey may be from a Sheshequin Fitch family

Ann Hassold said the date of baptism was 1783, but Fitch researcher said 1784

Child Daniel H. Fitch was born April 17, 1784 and he was one baptised same time as Betsey

He was the son of Samuel and Olive Fitch.

Tombstone dates or ages might be wrong (from bad stones, or inscription copied down wrong)

Still much to learn. That was why I was hoping to find in the Shaw family proof of what Betsey Fitch Jeremiah married.

From the different census records we have the information of where Betsey was born:

In New York by son, Gore, in 1880 census

In Pennsylvania by son, Guy, in 1880 census

In NY by son Fitch, in 1880 census

In Pennsylvania by daughter Lucy Ferguson in the 1880 census

None say in CT where she should have been born.

One of the problems here is lack of records. And Betsey was a woman. Both Jeremiah and Betsey had died before the 1850 census so any census that she might have been in, placed her as a female and a number with no reference to her place of birth.

I stumbled onto the scenario of the "3 Fitch sisters" by accident while going through census records. We have yet to prove that this is so, but nothing again that disproves it. It seems quite likely that these 3 girls may be sisters and daughters of John Fitch of PA.

Points to prove the 3 girls might have been sisters.....Betsey, Sally, and Lydia

Betsey Shaw named one of her daughters, Lydia Shaw

Lydia Smith named one of her daughters, Betsey Smith

Morgan, son of Nathaniel Fitch, named a daughter Lydia, for an aunt??

Spencer, son of Nathaniel Fitch, named a daughter Lydia, for an aunt??

In the 1820 census, I found Uriah Smith and Sarah of New York. Found this family while looking for Jeremiah Shaw and Betsey again in New York. First noticed that there was a Uriah Smith living about 2 houses from Jeremiah and Betsey. Then also that there was a Noah living next to him. This caught my attention.....were these Betsey and Sarah the Fitch sisters??? In following the trail of this Uriah and Sarah this is what I found.

1820 Census of Steuben County, New York (Wayne Township) Living right next to Noah Smith. (See under Noah)

Uriah Smith 200010 129100 (1810 Jeremiah and Betsey were in Yates, next to Steuben, NY) (Noah married a Lydia Fitch) It is quite certain that Uriah and Noah were brothers and they lived right across the river from the Fitch farm. They ran and owned part of the Keeler Ferry with Paul Keeler. So the Smiths and the Fitches would have been "next-door neighbors" or "just across the river neighbors".

All 3 families (the Jeremiah Shaws, the Uriah Smiths, and the Noah Smiths) lived very near to each other as shown in the census reports for about 15 years. Also an older lady who might have been John's 2nd wife, Mary, was living with the Uriah Smith family in 1820 and 1830.

Other information I have about the Betsey Fitch and Jeremiah Shaw, Jr. story

1, Samuel Fitch and Elizabeth Platt lived at Chestnut Hill above Norwalk, or perhaps called in Norwalk. This is just north of Poplar Plains area that was owned by John Fitch. They had a son by the name of Samuel Fitch who married Olive Stewart/Stuart. (Wilton)

The couple, Samuel and Olive baptized a child the same day that John Fitch and Molly did, May 20, 1784 in Stamford, CT. John and Molly called their daughter Betsey.

2. John Lockwood married Eunice Squire and they were also at Stamford the same day having a baby baptized. I do not have the name of that child, but it could be traced in the Church records.

John had been married to Abigail Taylor, the daughter of Reuben Taylor, first. (This is interesting, as a Reuben Taylor is a neighbor of John Fitch in PA.

3. There was also a John Lockwood who married Eunice Smith, Oct. 1784, probably the son of John and Abigail above.

If John Lockwood, Elizabeth's brother was born in 1736 and married Abigail about 1756, he could have a son who married in 1784. John would have been 12 years older than his sister Elizabeth who married John Fitch in 1766. The date of John Lockwood's marriage to Eunice was 1776 as reported by Jacobus. The other John Lockwood who married Eunice Smith in 1784 would have been born in 1760 and was called John Lockwood, Jr. The date of the baptisms of May 20, 1784 might seem too early for this John and Eunice, but things did happen "out of order" in those days also. Either John and Eunice might apply here. Or the date copied incorrectly

(John Prob 1737)

Our John Fitch and Elizabeth Lockwood were born about ~~1745-48~~, married 1766
Do not have the date of John Lockwood and Abigail Taylor's marriage, but could be 10 years earlier

John Lockwood married 2. Eunice Squire in 1776

Samuel Fitch and Olive Stewart were born about 1760 and married 1783

4. In the records all three of these couples were called "of Norwalk" and not of Stamford though that was where they had the children or babies baptized. The church was Episcopal which most of the Nathaniel line went to in Norwalk - St. Paul's Wilton

This sets up the scenario that all 3 of these couples were living in the Chestnut Hill, Weston, area of Norwalk. Though we don't know who "Molly" Fitch was, we do know that his first wife, Elizabeth Lockwood was dead by 1783/4 when her father died. Was called deceased in his will. It could clear up the reason why "Betsey Fitch" was baptized in Stamford and not Weston, as all 3 families had their babies baptized in Stamford. Why?? We do not know, but it helps to identify which John Fitch had Molly as a wife, and Betsey as a baby. Probably the one of Poplar Plains. The church in children Norwalk was burned

1779

And to look into the SHAW family to see if Betsey who married Jeremiah Shaw, Jr. was indeed, the daughter of John Fitch, and if it was the same John Fitch who moved to PA with his family.

There is a THE SHAW FAMILY HISTORY, by Christian Bailey Shaw. Perhaps it might be found in the Allen County Public Library.

Perhaps because Tryon had burned the St. Paul's church in Norwalk & they didn't get it built again until several years later.

48. SHAW, Lydia, d. 22 May 1835, 26y

From Geneva Daily Times 18 May 1904

Albert A. Shaw died at his home on Grove street yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Shaw was stricken with pneumonia two weeks ago. And although he had been critically ill, a change for the better occurred on Sunday, and hopes for his early recovery were entertained. His death, however, was sudden. Mr. Shaw was twenty-seven years of age, and was born in Groton, Tompkins county. He came to Geneva two years ago and engaged in the insurance business. Later he became junior member of the firm of Buchholz & Shaw, grocers, but at the time of his death he was employed at the Phillips & Clark stove works. Last December Mr. Shaw was married to Miss Bertha Buchholz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Buchholz. Beside his wife, he is survived by his father, W. H. Shaw, of Groton, five sisters, Mrs. Stephen Parker of Cortland, Mrs. Grant Halladay, Mrs. Earnest Van DeBogart and Mrs. Earl Moe, all of Groton, and Mrs. E. N. Dixon of Philadelphia. He also leaves three brothers, Lyman E. Shaw of Groton, H. B. Shaw of North Lansing and J. W. Shaw of this city. Mr. Shaw was a member of the Moravia lodge, I. O. O. F., and a delegation from that organization will attend the funeral, which will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Burial Glenwood cemetery

From Ontario County Journal 11 January 1878

Reed's Corners, N. Y. - Last Sabbath, the funeral of Mrs. Sarah Shaw, relict of the late Isaac Shaw, was attended from the Congregational church. A large number of people gathered there to witness the last solemn services the living can render to the dead. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw came to this town in an early day, and located on a farm three-fourths of a mile west of this place, where they remained until the occurrence of the death of Mr. Shaw, some nine or ten years since. During the time of her widowhood, Mrs. Shaw has lived in the families of her three children, one of whom - Norman B. - now resides upon the home estate. The other two - Addison and Almira - live in Rochester. Mrs. Shaw had lately lived with her daughter, at whose home she died. Her age was 77 years.

Person Note for Sally Fitch

Marriage March 23, 1806, recorded April 11, 1806 to Uriah Smith, Northmoreland.
"married Sally, daughter of John Fitch of Northmoreland"

Found in records of marriages and deaths published in Wilkes-Barre Gazette, Dec. 5, 1797 to Dec. 8, 1800 and Luzerne Co. Federalist, Jan. 12, 1801 to Dec. 28, 1809, published in Wilkes-Barre, PA. Proceedings of Wyoming Historical and Geological Society, Vol. 7, page 211.

In reading the actual transcription of this item we have.....

"URIAH SMITH married to MISS SALLY, daughter of JOHN FITCH ESQ., of Northmoreland, on Sunday the 23rd ult., by Elisha Harding" Paper of April 11, 1806. The ULT means the month before.....translating the marriage date to March 23, 1806.

Note also that John Fitch was called John Fitch, Esq.

At this point we cannot prove that Sally is the daughter of this John Fitch, but he was the only John Fitch listed in this area at that time that we know of. The surprise is that he was called Esq. (tho Esq. may have just meant landowner at that time) Also Northmoreland pins this down to our John Fitch's area. At that time, his farm was in Northmoreland.

From the IGI Pedigree of Uriah Smith we find that a Sarah Fitch who married a Uriah Smith was born about 1784 in Ridgefield, CT.

(prob. place error)

This Uriah Smith born Dec. 22, 1784 in Ridgefield, CT. the son of Hezekiah Smith and Abigail Morehouse

We do not know if this is the right couple, but in the pedigree of Uriah Smith we find:

Hezekiah Smith, b 1755 at Ridgefield, died 1822 at Luzerne Co., Pa wife, Abigail born at Ridgefield Ct

Hezekiah's father

Thomas Smith, born 1715 at Milford, CT, died Luzerne Co. Pa given the same death date as son, Hezekiah, prob. error

But we can assume that at least Hezekiah took his family, including Uriah to Luzerne Co., PA

Sally and Sarah are interchangeable with names and Sally above, dau. of John Fitch of Northmoreland did marry Uriah Smith in Luzerne Co. (The names had changed greatly over the years. We had Westmoreland, then Northmoreland, then Luzerne, then Wyoming Co. and all the same place.)

Sally or Sarah's birthdate of about 1784 could be very close, if Betsey her sister was baptized in Stamford in May of 1784 and the girls were married 3 years apart. The IGI says that Sarah was born in Ridgefield, but that may just be an uneducated guess on someone's part. I know of no Fitch family living there. Certainly no John Fitch family. (1850 census, if correct one, shows probable 1786 date)

Perhaps a search of the Smith family in SHOEMAKER would be in order.

From burial records of the Hillside Cemetery, Dundee, Yates, New York we find this:

Burial records of Hillside Cemetery, Dundee, Yates Co., NY
Uriah Smith,,,,,,,,,,,,,died Aug. 12, 1866, aged 81 years, 7 months, 21 days
Buried in the plot of Ira Raplee., son-in-law

Sarah Smith .....died Oct. 17, 1867, aged 71 years, 10 months, wife of Uriah
Buried in the plot of Ira Raplee

Appears it should be 81 years old at death for Sarah too, not 71. First child born in 1807. If 71 was the correct age at death that would make her birth year about 1796. She would not have been old enough to have a child in 1807, and all of the census reports show her age to be nearly the same as Uriah. And their deaths then just a year apart.

Also note that it was Hezekiah Smith who owned the Keeler's Ferry operation together with Paul Keeler, Jr. Meaning that they would have probably been living or working in the same area as the John Fitch farm.

One genealogy that gives all the children of Hezekiah says they were born in Ridgefield, CT, except for the last one who was Morehouse Smith and he was said to have been born 1798 in Wyoming, Luzerne, PA.

Points to prove the 3 girls might have been sisters.....Betsey, Sally, and Lydia
Betsey Shaw named one of her daughters, Lydia Shaw
Lydia Smith named one of her daughters, Betsey Smith
Sally Smith named one of her daughters, Lydia Smith
Morgan, son of Nathaniel Fitch, named a daughter Lydia, for an aunt??
Spencer, son of Nathaniel Fitch, named a daughter Lydia, for an aunt??

This is a work in progress about Uriah and Sally. Probably positive confirmation comes when we find that Uriah and Sarah Smith were buried in the plot of Ira Raplee in the Hillside Cemetery. Ira, Polly, and Caroline were all buried there, so fits this family together nicely. I believe without a doubt that this Sally or Sarah was the child of our John Fitch, and that she married her next door neighbor and probable childhood sweetheart, Uriah Smith. Ira was their son-in-law, who married 2 of their daughters, Polly and Caroline.

Children were based on different genealogies on line. Plus many census reports which you will find in Uriah's notes.

The following I thought might be a connection with Uriah and Sally, but now do not believe it is because both Uriah and Sarah were still living yet in 1860. Need a little more information on this. If this is Sally, then where is Uriah? But will not delete it until I am very sure Euphrasia is not a part of the family.

This shows a Sally Smith in the home of James G. Granger in 1860

James G. Granger, 40.....born 1820

Euphrasia Granger, 35.....born 1825

Adella C. Granger, 5.....born 1855

Sally Smith, 74.....born 1786

Joseph Morrell, 26 .....born 1834

Mary Whitmore, 20.....born 1840

So did Uriah and Sally Smith have a daughter by the name of Euphrasia?

Have not entered Euphrasia as a daughter at this time. Need more info.

Person Note for Uriah Smith

IGI has possible lineage under "Uriah Smith" parents Hezekiah Smith and Abigail Morehouse

gr parents, Thomas Smith and Ada Raymond

gr. gr parents: Rev. Thomas Smith and Hannah Camp maternal grandparents: James Morehouse and Ann Baxter

gr. gr parents: Lemuel Morehouse and Mary Boulton

All of Ridgefield, Milford, or Norwalk

Abigail would be distant relative of David Morehouse who also came to Northmoreland, Luzerne Co., Pa with his family. This Smith family seems to be coming more from the Ridgefield area, than Norwalk, but they are only a few miles apart, and Ridgefield was started by Norwalk families anyway.

Gideon Morehouse, David's ancestor was a brother to Thomas Morehouse, who was Abigail's ancestor.

Uriah's siblings were: James, Nancy, Ada, Noah, Parmenas, Betsy, Isaac, Jeremiah, and Morehouse

all born at Ridgefield, except for Morehouse who was born in Luzerne Co., PA

No doubt we have the right "Uriah Smith" who married John's and Mary's daughter, Sally or Sarah.

Also if Uriah is a son of Hezekiah, he is in the family who co-owned the Keeler Ferry operation with Paul Keeler Jr.

On January 1, 1810 there were letters in the WilkesBarre Postoffice for HEZEKIAH SMITH, JEREMIAH SMITH, BETSEY SMITH, and ABRAHAM
SMITH

Hezekiah, father of Uriah, Jeremiah and Betsey, siblings

Not sure where Abraham might come in.

Not sure if the long lineage would be correct. Hezekiah is called Hezekiah Smith, Jr. in the records found in "The History of Ridgefield" by John Rockwell. He lists the same children as those above and note that the last child listed in this book, recorded in Ridgefield was Jeremiah who was born in 1786, just about the time they came to PA. Children recorded on page 498.

Isaac Smith, when a boy, in crossing the river at Keeler's Ferry on the ice with a hand sled, loaded with flax, carelessly ran into an air hole. Noah Smith happened to see the flax drifting down stream, knowing his brother must be in the river, instantly ran and jumped in after him, got hold of him and swam to the edge of the ice where by the timely assistance of URIAH SMITH, another brother, and some other persons, both were rescued from a watery grave. (Note the 3 brothers, Isaac, Noah, and Uriah)

.....
All this would put Uriah Smith, son of Hezekiah Smith is just the right place, across the river from the John Fitch farm, to get acquainted with "Sally" and marry her.

Then I found the family of Uriah Smith and Sarah in New York. Found this family while looking for Jeremiah Shaw and Betsey again in New York. First noticed that there was a Uriah Smith living about 2 houses from Jeremiah and Betsey. Then also that there was a Noah living next to them. This caught my attention.....were this Betsey and Sarah the Fitch sisters??? In following the trail of this Uriah and Sarah this is what I found.

1820 Census of Steuben County, New York (Wayne Township) Living right next to Noah Smith. (See under Noah)

Uriah Smith 200010 129100 (1810 Jeremiah and Betsey were in Steuben Co., NY or Onieda Co. Lines for counties and townships kept changing. )

1830 Census of Barrington, Yates County, New York

Uriah Smith 0011001 0001101 (Noah is also on this report- see under Noah)

Uriah would have been 40 to 50 and born between 1780-1790

(1830 Jeremiah and Betsey were in Ontario, NY)

1840 Census Milo, Yates County, New York

Uriah Smith 00001001 00002001 (Noah is not there at this time)

Uriah would have been 50 to 60 and born between 1780-1790

(1840 Jeremiah and Betsey were in Ontario, NY)

1850 Census of Starkey, Yates County, New York

Uriah Smith was 65 and a shoemaker, and born in CT

Sarah, named on this one, was 64, and born in CT

(1850 both Jeremiah and Betsey are dead)

(However, one son (Guy) is still living in Yates Co., NY and another (Gore) in Steuben Co., NY.

Jeremiah and Betsey were reported to have moved from Sheshequin to Canandagua NY. We find that Steuben and Yates and Ontario counties are all there together near the town of Canandagua. If this is indeed Uriah and Sally, daughter of John Fitch, and I believe it is, then there is a good possibility that Betsey was indeed also the daughter of John Fitch. Boundary lines of these counties may have changed during this period or the families may have made some slight moves themselves. To make this even more exciting, I factored in Noah's wife, who I found was named by one researcher as Lydia Fitch.....wow! OK was Lydia one of the younger Fitch girls?? We know there were a few that we did not have names for as they were never recorded anywhere except as numbers in the census reports. So here we have perhaps 3 Fitch sisters living in the same area. And then this Lydia Fitch Smith named a daughter, Betsey!

Will add the actual census reports here:

1810 Census of Abingdon, Luzerne County, PA

Uriah Smith 00100 20102

1 male 16 to 26 1784-1794 would be Uriah
2 females under 10 1800-1810 Polly, Lydia
1 female 16 to 26 1784-1794 wife, Sally/Sarah
2 females over 45 before 1765 mother?? Aunts ??

1820 Census of Wayne Township, Steuben, New York (This was also listed under Yates Co.)

Perhaps the lines of the townships had changed. Also other Smiths who were in this same list were :

Noah 131 Wayne, Ralph, 133 Rea, Richard 248 Milo, Solomon 129 Wayne, Solomon 129 Wayne, Solomon 135, Rea, Thomas 74 Wayne

Uriah Smith 200010 120100

2 males under 10 1810-1820 might there have been some boys? Horatio?
1 male 26 to 45 1775-1794 would be Uriah, head of house
1 female under 10 1810-1820 Caroline
2 females 10 to 16 1804-1810 Polly and Lydia
1 female 26 to 45 1775-1794 would be Sally or Sarah, wife

Married in 1806 it would be very possible to have 5 children by 1820 and they do fit in the ages listed.

1825 Barrington, Yates Co., New York

Noah Smith, 4, Barrington
Thomas Smith 1, Barrington
Uriah Smith, 4, Barrington

Also have several other Smiths at that time, Peter in Milo, Peter in Jerusalem, Richard in Milo, Salmon in Barrington, Silas in Starkey. This may indicate that we have the wrong Smith family and have made our story "fit" when it does not.

1830 Census of Barrington, Yates County, New York

Uriah Smith 0011001 0001101

1 male 10 to 15 1815-1820
1 male 15 to 20 1810-1815
1 male 40 to 50 1780-1790 would be Uriah, head of house
1 female 15 to 20 1810-1815 Caroline

1 female 20 to 30 1800-1810

1 female 40 to 50 1780-1790 would be wife, Sally or Sarah

Still have not found any boys except for the possibility that Horatio is the son of this couple.

Horatio says that his parents are Uriah and Sally Smith, but seems to have been born in another county in New York.

1835 Yates County

Uriah Smith, 12, Barrington

1840 Census of Milo Township, Yates County, New York

Uriah Smith 00001001 00002001 (by this time Noah is no longer there; he died??)

1 male 20 to 30 1810-1820

1 male 50 to 60 1780-1790 would be Uriah, head

2 females 20 to 30 1810-1820 Caroline (did not marry until 1845)

1 female 50 to 60 1780-1820 would be Sarah, wife

1850 Census of Starkey Township, Yates County, New York

Uriah Smith 65 born CT shoemaker 1785

Sarah Smith 64 born CT 1786

Note here again that Sarah says she was born in CT as any daughter of John Fitch would have to have been born as they were in Poplar Plains, near Norwalk, about that time.

1855 Yates County, New York

Sarah Smith, 1/197

Uriah Smith, 1/197

1865 Census of Starkey, Yates Co., New York

Sarah Smith 1/51D

Uriah Smith 1/51D

This would have been the last time that either of them would have been reported in a census. Uriah died in 1866 and Sarah followed a year later in 1867.

Is it possible that the Horatio below is a son of our Uriah and Sally? They were married in March of 1806 and could have had a son that year. (However no census report substantiates that there was a son born before 1810, but if married in 1806, it could be possible. His place of birth though is a long way from Yates County.

LORD CEMETERY
Jones Road at Twitchell Road intersection of Route 364
Town of Gorham
Rushville, Ontario Co., NY

Read by Lyn Wilson and Larry King Oct 1995; research transcribed Jul 2002.

Introduction

For many years, the Lord Cemetery has been known on the records as the HAWLEY-LORD CEMETERY. It had always been known by locals as the Lord Cemetery. My cousin finally researched deeds and other documents which showed the correct name was Lord Cemetery. He took his findings to the County, they agreed, and have since corrected the name in their records.

The cemetery has been surveyed several times, each time with differing results. The first effort to my knowledge was in 1965. The cemetery was heavily overgrown with brambles at that time and several stones were missed. The next was by a cousin in the 1970's. Some effort to clear the area had been made and she and her daughter braved the remaining brambles and recorded much new information. The cemetery was cleared in the 1980's and another effort was made with less than satisfying results. We did our survey in 1995 and, unbeknownst to each other, my cousin who had corrected the name of the cemetery also did a survey at about the same time.

The combined results of all of these surveys, plus research into the Census, local histories and other local records, and family research have provided the basis for the following information. I have a deep interest in this cemetery as I am in some way related to nearly everyone buried here. It is a research work still in progress.

As a very sorry commentary on our times, I should note that since our survey in 1995, extensive vandalism has occurred and most of the remaining stones have been damaged or destroyed.

Person Note for Horatio Smith

Horatio Smith, Male, Died Aug. 31, 1874 at East Cleveland, Cuyahoga Ohio, aged 68 born 1806 at Cambridge, Washington, New York

Occupation: Assessor

Married

Father's name, Uriah Smith

Mother's name, Sally Smith

Indexing Project (Batch) # 807075-6

System Origin Ohio-EASy

Source Film # 879241

Reference # v 1 p 178

.....
1870 Census of Ohio Township, Cuyahoga, Ohio P.O. Collamer

Horatio Smith.....	64 M.....	born NY.....	abt 1806
Rebecca Smith.....	54 F.....		abt 1816
Francis Smith.....	19 F.....		abt 1851
Emma Smith.....	17 F.....		abt 1853
Ada Smith.....	14 F.....		abt 1856

May or may not be the correct Horatio Smith but since the death of the Horatio who was said to be the son of Uriah and Sally died in Cuyahoga, Ohio, in 1874, then it seems quite likely this is their son.

Just need to know if "Sally" is Sally or Sarah Fitch.

We also find another about the same age in Portage, Ohio, in the 1850 census as follows:

Horatio N. Smith.....	42 M.....	born NY.....	abt 1808
Emzie Smith.....	34 F.....		abt 1816
Loamie H. Smith.....	13 M.....		abt 1837
Cornelias M. Smith.....	6 F.....		abt 1844
Frances Smith.....	0 F.....		abt 1850.....image

says 5/12

Emzie and Rebecca are the same age in both censuses

Frances is 0 meaning a baby, it is possible that this is the same family as the one from Cuyahoga, Ohio just 10 and 20 years later.

1860 Census answers that question

1860 Census of East Cleveland, Cuyahoga, Ohio

Horatio N. Smith.....	55 M.....	born NY.....	abt 1805
Rebecca L. Smith.....	44 F.....	born OH.....	abt 1815
Mary L. Smith.....	20 F.....	born OH.....	abt
1840.....	teacher
Cornelia Smith.....	19 F.....	born OH.....	abt
1841.....	teacher
George W. Smith.....	16 M.....	born OH.....	abt 1844
Sarah A. Smith.....	16 F.....	born OH.....	abt 1844
Catherine J. Smith.....	13 F.....	born OH.....	abt 1847
Wayne Smith.....	11 M.....	born OH.....	abt 1849
Frances Smith.....	9 F.....	born OH.....	abt 1851
Emma Smith.....	7 F.....	born OH.....	abt 1853
Ida Smith.....	3 F.....	born OH.....	abt 1857

Notice that the last three children are Frances, Emma and Ida which corresponds with the census of 1870 listing Francis, who is also a female. So Francis was born before the 1850 census was taken and listed as 0 in 1850 and 19 in 1870.

So this is the same family, but we cannot absolutely sure that it is the family or our Uriah Smith and Sally Fitch, but it does appear ~~to be~~ their son and grandchildren.

it could be

Person Note for Lydia Fitch

We seem to find less about Lydia and Noah than the other girls, that we hope are sisters. Have not been able to find a burial place for either Lydia or Noah, nor anything past the possible 1840 census below.

Interesting census report in 1840. I was unable to find any Noah Smith that would fit into this family in 1840 but did find a Lydia Smith. May or may not be the Lydia we are looking for, but still in the same county.

1840 Census of Prattsburg, Steuben County, New York

Lydia Smith 0001 012001

1 male 15 to 20	1820-1825
1 female 5 to 10	1830-1835
2 females 10 to 15	1825-1830
1 female 30 to 40	1800-1810

Only other Smith on the page is a Whitman who appear to be about the same age as Lydia with 2 small boys.

Betsey Shaw, Sarah Smith and Lydia Smith ..... the Fitch sisters???

Points to prove the 3 girls might have been sisters.....Betsey, Sally, and Lydia

Betsey Shaw named one of her daughters, Lydia Shaw

Lydia Smith named one of her daughters, Betsey Smith

Morgan, son of Nathaniel Fitch, named a daughter Lydia, for an aunt??

Spencer, son of Nathaniel Fitch, named a daughter Lydia, for an aunt?? I can in no way guarantee that Lydia was a child of this family.

All we have is circumstantial evidence to that fact.

All the sisters I have here, Betsey, Sarah, and Lydia are somewhat in question though it seems that Uriah and Sarah (Sally) are almost certain and were married in Northmoreland.

Connections are as follows:

Betsey Fitch married Jeremiah Shaw, Jr. in 1803 in Luzerne Co., Sheshequin

Sally Fitch, daughter of John Fitch, married Uriah Smith in Luzerne Co in 1806

Noah Smith was Uriah's brother; they were living across the river from the Fitch family

Noah Smith was said to have married Lydia Fitch.

Thus I can see possibly that the 3 girls were sisters.

We find them individually living in 1810

1820 and 1830 they are all living in the same neighborhood, only doors apart, in western New York

1840, 1850 Uriah and Sarah (Sally) are still living there

1840, Jeremiah and Betsy live just a little north 1840, no sign of Noah, but perhaps Lydia Smith in the same place is the wife of Noah and Noah is dead
Jeremiah and Betsy die in the 1840's
Only Uriah and Sarah show up in the later census reports, 1850 - 1865

1820 Census of Wayne Township, Steuben Co., NY

Noah Smith 000010 301010

1 male 26 to 45 1775-1794 would be Noah (born abt. 1787)

3 females under 10 1810-1820 Only have the name of Betsey

1 female 16 to 26 1794-1804 prob. Lydia

1 female over 45 before 1765 Is it possible that this could be Mary Fitch, wife of John?? John has died by this time.

shows they had 3 daughters before 1820

1830 Census of Barrington, Yates County, New York

Noah Smith 0000001 1021010001

1 male 40 to 50 1780-1790 would be Noah

1 female under 5 1825-1830

2 females 10 to 15 1815-1820

1 female 15 to 20 1810-1815

1 female 30 to 40 1790-1800 prob. wife, Lydia

1 female 70 to 80 1760-1770 Mary Fitch still living with them???

It appears that Noah probably has some parent or older relative living with him.

Appears to have 4 daughters between 1810 and 1830, and no sons

1840 Census of Prattsburg, Steuben, New York

Lydia Smith 0001.....012001

1 male 15 to 20 1820-1825 may be a relative. Shows no sign of son in other census records.

1 female 5 to 10 1830-1835

2 females 10 to 15 1825-1830

1 female 30 to 40 1800-1810 This appears to be too young to be our Lydia, but records are far from perfect.

Shows 3 females between 1825 and 1835. An older daughter may be married and gone from home or maybe even 2 daughters gone. If so there may have been 5 girls in the family.....if this is the same Lydia Smith who was Noah's wife. Could be an entirely different family. But appears that her husband is dead as she is listed as head of the home. And I do not find Noah anywhere. Daughter, Betsey Smith, should still be at home as she did not marry, though she could be working out of the home.

John Fitch shows 5 females in the 1790 census.....would guess Betsey, Sally, wife

Mary, and 2 others

John Fitch shows in 1800 ... 6 females

2 females under 10	1790-1800	???
1 female 10 to 16	1784-1790	Betsey
2 females 16 to 26	1774-1784	Betsey, Sally
1 female over 45	bef 1755	Wife, Mary

John listed in the 1810 census of Tunkhannock Township: 1 male over 45, 1 female over 45, and 2 females between 16 and 26.

1 female over 45 .....born before 1765.....Mary
2 females 16 to 26.....1784 to 1794 .....unknown

Lydia may have been in this category and not yet married.

And there must have been at least one other daughter that we do not know about, maybe 2

We need to find a marriage date for Lydia and Noah.

Estimates for her birth ranged from 1787 to 1793.

Possibly married around 1814-1815 at the latest because of 3 children

Uriah Smith, 4, Barrington

Also have several other Smiths at that time, Peter in Milo, Peter in Jerusalem, Richard in Milo, Salmon in Barrington, Silas in Starkey. This may indicate that we have the wrong Smith family and have made our story "fit" when it does not.

Issac Smith, when a boy, in crossing the river at Keeler's Ferry on the ice with a hand sled, loaded with flax, carelessly ran into an air hole. Noah Smith happened to see the flax drifting down stream, knowing his brother must be in the river, instantly ran and jumped in after him, got hold of him and swam to the edge of the ice where by the timely assistance of URIAH SMITH, another brother, and some other persons, both were rescued from a watery grave. ## Person Note for Noah Smith

The following are the census reports for Noah Smith that I think pertain to this Noah, though I cannot be sure:

1820 Census of Wayne Township, Steuben Co., NY

Noah Smith 000010 301010

1 male 26 to 45 1775-1794 would be Noah (born abt. 1787)

3 females under 10 1810-1820

1 female 16 to 26 1794-1804 prob. Lydia

1 female over 45 before 1765 might be MARY Fitch, John's wife Lydia's mother?

1825 Barrington, Yates Co., New York

Noah Smith, 4, Barrington

Uriah Smith, 4, Barrington

Also have several other Smiths at that time, Peter in Milo, Peter in Jerusalem, Richard in Milo, Salmon in Barrington, Silas in Starkey. This may indicate that we have the wrong Smith family and have made our story "fit" when it does not.

More evidence that...it is our family

1830 Census of Barrington, Yates County, New York

1 male 40 to 50 1780-1790 would be Noah

1 female under 5 1825-1830

2 females 10 to 15 1815-1820

1 female 15 to 20 1810-1815

1 female 30 to 40 1790-1800 prob. wife, Lydia

1 female 70 to 80 1760-1770 MARY Fitch?

It appears that Noah probably has some parent or older relative living with him.

1840 Census of Prattsburg, Steuben, New York

Lydia Smith 0001.....012001

1 male 15 to 20 1820-1825 may be a relative. Shows no sign of son in other census records.

1 female 5 to 10 1830-1835

2 females 10 to 15 1825-1830

1 female 30 to 40 1800-1810 This appears to be too young to be our Lydia, but may be

but records are far from perfect.
Shows 3 females between 1825 and 1835. An older daughter may be married and gone from home or maybe even 2 daughters gone. Uriah & Sarah Smith
"Sally Fitch"

Jeremiah Shaw and Uriah Smith

1810 Census of Benton, Oneida, New York

Jeremiah Shaw 10010 20010

Or

Jeremiah Shaw 10010 20110 (both on same page of census report)

1 male under 10	1800-1810	would be Fitch Shaw
1 male 26 to 45	1765-1784	would be Jeremiah, head of house
2 females under 10	1800-1810	Teresa, Lydia
1 female 26 to 45	1765-1784	wife, Betsey

Second Jeremiah has added just one female 16 to 26.....1784-1794 Marriage 1803

1820 Census of Wayne Township, Steuben County, New York

Jeremiah Shaw 110010 301100

1 male under 10	1810-1820	would be Gore Shaw
1 male 10 to 16	1804-1810	would be Fitch Shaw
1 male 26 to 45	1775-1794	would be Jeremiah, head of house
3 females under 10	1810-1820	Laura, Lucy, maybe Lydia
1 female 16 to 26	1794-1804	Lydia or Teresa
1 female 26 to 45	1775-1794	wife, Betsey

Interesting thing I found on this census report was that 3 houses down from Jeremiah and family we find a Uriah Smith and next to him a Noah Smith. Is this possible then that it might be Sally Fitch who married Uriah Smith living near to her sister Betsey???
Something to think on. Sure enough the Uriah that we have concluded was married to Sally Fitch has a brother named Noah.

Uriah Smith 200010 120100

2 males under 10	1810-1820
1 male 26 to 45	1775-1794	would be Uriah, head of house
1 female under 10	1810-1820
2 females 10 to 16	1804-1810
1 female 26 to 45	1775-1794	would be Sally or Sarah, wife

Married in 1806 it would be very possible to have 5 children by 1820 and they do fit in the ages listed.

1830 Census of Gorham, Ontario, New York

Jeremiah Shaw 020010100 0111101

2 males 5 to 10	1820-1825	Guy(1821), ??
1 male 20 to 30	1800-1810	Gore or Fitch ??
1 male 40 to 50	1780-1790	would be Jeremiah, head of house
1 female 5 to 10	1820-1825	Wealthy Ann
1 female 10 to 15	1815-1820	Laura
1 female 15 to 20	1810-1815	Lucy
1 female 20 to 30	1800-1810	Lydia or Teresa
1 female 40 to 50	1780-1790	would be wife, Betsey

Let's look at Uriah Smith in New York (We still find Noah there also about same age)

1830 Census of Barrington, Yates, New York

Uriah Smith 0011001 0001101

1 male 10 to 15	1815-1820
1 male 15 to 20	1810-1815
1 male 40 to 50	1780-1790	would be Uriah, head of house
1 female 15 to 20	1810-1815
1 female 20 to 30	1800-1810
1 female 40 to 50	1780-1790	would be wife, Sally or Sarah

1840 Census of Gorham, Ontario, New York

Jeremiah Shaw 00012101 00011001

1 male 15 to 20	1820-1825	Guy
2 males 20 to 30	1810-1820	Gore, ??
1 male 30 to 40	1800-1810	Fitch
1 male 50 to 60	1780-1790	would be Jeremiah, head
1 female 15 to 20	1820- 1825	Wealthy Ann
1 female 20 to 30	1810-1820	Laura or Lucy

1840 Census of Milo, Yates, New York

Uriah Smith 00001001 00002001 (by this time Noah is no longer there; he died??)

1 male 20 to 30	1810-1820
1 male 50 to 60	1780-1790	would be Uriah, head
2 females 20 to 30	1810-1820
1 female 50 to 60	1780-1820	would be Sarah, wife

1850 Census of Starkey Township, Yates County, New York

Uriah Smith	65	born CT	shoemaker	1785
Sarah Smith	64	born CT		1786

By 1850 both Jeremiah and his wife, Betsey were dead.

SHAW, Guy, born in Barrington, December 4, 1820, was the son of Jeremiah and Betsey SHAW of that town. At the age of twenty-one, Guy left the home farm to make his own way in life. He attended school at Canandaigua two years, preparing himself for teaching and thereafter he taught school eight winter terms. His summer months were spent on the farms. In 1843 his father died, the family then residing in Ontario County. In 1848, Guy bought the Thomas LEE farm in Benton. Here, Mr. SHAW has since lived, with the exception of four years. In 1843 he married Laura L. PIERCE, by whom he has three children. Guy SHAW is a factor in Yates County politics. He was an original Free Soiler, but became a Republican on the organization of that party. In 1863 he represented the county in the Assembly. For the last twenty years, Mr. SHAW has acted independent of politics and has inclined to the Farmers' Alliance. Both himself and wife are members of the M.E. Church, he having been formerly one of its trustees.

RAPLEE, Ira, born in Little Britain, Greene County, January 23, 1804, was the son of Joshua and Keziah RAPLEE, and the sixth of their eleven children. In 1805 the family came to what is now Torrey, where the parents lived and died. Ira lived on a farm until he was fifty years old, and then moved to Dundee to educate his children. In 1870 he moved to Penn Yan, where he has since resided. Mr. RAPLEE has never been an idle man, and even in his retirement from business life and regardless of his advanced age is still active both in body and in mind. A life of industry and frugality have brought him a substantial fortune. In 1826, Mr. RAPLEE married Polly SMITH by whom he had four children: William R., Keziah, Sarah and Villa. His wife died April 9, 1843. April 10, 1845, he married Caroline SMITH, a sister of his first wife. She died August 13, 1877. September 3, 1878, Mr. RAPLEE again married Mary Jane OWEN, daughter of Jonathan OWEN and old and respected citizen of Milo.

Organization of the Town and Town Officers

History & Directory of Yates Co., Vol 1

Pub 1873, by Stafford C. Cleveland, Pg 164 – 166

When Steuben county was organized, all that now forms the towns of Tyrone, Wayne, Reading, Starkey and Barrington, was included in the town of Fredrickton, so named in honor of Frederick BARTLES, a German, who built a mill at the outlet of Mud Lake in 1793, under the patronage of Charles WILLIAMSON.

Afterwards, Reading was cut off, and the town of Wayne organized, including what is now Barrington. Finally in 1822 the town of Barrington was created with its present boundaries and in 1826 it was added with Starkey to Yates county. The first town meeting was held February 24th, 1823, at the house of Daniel RAPALEE (the old Teeples place), Richard EDDY was elected Supervisor; Daniel RAPALEE, Town Clerk; Joseph MC CAIN, Collector; James A. SWARTHOUT, Jeremiah SHAW, and Lodowick DISBROW, Commissioners of Highways; Ephraim BENNETT, Matthew MC DOWELL and Robert ARMSTRONG, Commissioners of Schools; Ira CHURCH, Matthew KNAPP and Tippet SUNDERLIN, Assessors; Ezekiel BLUE and Victor PUTNAM, Overseers of the Poor; Joseph MC CAIN, Elijah BAKER and Peter PUTNAM Jr., Constables; Dennis SUNDERLIN, Richard EDDY and Ira SUNDERLIN, Inspectors of Common Schools; Daniel RAPALEE, Pound Master. The subsequent Supervisors have been:

Phillip RIGGS, the father of the foregoing family, died in 1821 at the age of 77 years. His first wife was Polly PIERCE, the mother of all his children. He was afterwards married four times; to Hetty SMITH, widow INGLES, Polly SMITH and widow RADLEY. His granddaughter, Mrs. Orrin SHAW, daughter of Mary PATTERSON, relates that she had five grandmothers on the maternal side; and as her father's father had two wives, her husband's father two, and her husband a grand mother on the maternal side, she recognized ten grandmothers.

FORBES - SHAW - We know that the Shaws moved to Sheshequin, Bradford Cty., PA prior to July 1764, when Jeremiah SHAW Sr. died there, from Little Compton, Newport Cty., RI. We also know that the entire family did not move together but that Jeremiah SHAW Jr. and Abigail CAMPBELL and nine of their 10 children came seperately and were all in Sheshequin by 4/1/1786. Ebenezer, the 8th had been born 9/5/1771. Ebenezer married Cynthia HOLCOMB daughter of Eli and Hannah (Crofut)Holcomb in Ulster, Bradford Cty. 2/26/1801. Their oldest child Harry Shaw was born in Sheshequin 12/28/1803. Harry married Polly SNYDER at Sheshequin 10/7/1824. Polly was born 3/29/1808, the eldest child of oWilliam and Hannah (Park) Snyder. Poly died in Sheshequin 7/21/1886. The youngest of Harry and Polly's 9 children, Emilia Inez was born in Sheshequin 4/19/1851. She married Orson R. FORBES there 10/4/1871. Orson and Emilia remained in Sheshequin at least long enough appear on the 1880 census with the first of three children, Burton Wallace FORBES who was born 3/16/1874. Burton was my granddad. The question is, how and when did Orson get to Sheshequin? Any help would be appreciated, thanks.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud.

2. The second part of the document outlines the specific requirements for record-keeping. It states that all transactions must be recorded in a timely and accurate manner, and that the records must be maintained for a minimum of five years.

3. The third part of the document discusses the role of the auditor in verifying the accuracy of the records. It states that the auditor must perform a thorough review of the records and must report any discrepancies to the appropriate authorities.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the consequences of failing to maintain accurate records. It states that individuals or organizations that fail to comply with the record-keeping requirements may be subject to fines and penalties.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of training and education in ensuring compliance with the record-keeping requirements. It states that individuals involved in the financial system must receive appropriate training and education to ensure that they are able to maintain accurate records.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of internal controls in preventing fraud and ensuring the accuracy of the records. It states that organizations must implement effective internal controls to minimize the risk of fraud and to ensure that all transactions are properly recorded.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the importance of transparency and accountability in the financial system. It states that all transactions must be transparent and that individuals and organizations must be held accountable for their actions.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the importance of ongoing monitoring and evaluation of the record-keeping system. It states that organizations must regularly review and evaluate their record-keeping system to ensure that it remains effective and efficient.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the importance of collaboration and communication between all parties involved in the financial system. It states that individuals and organizations must work together to ensure that the financial system is transparent, accountable, and free from fraud.

10. The tenth part of the document discusses the importance of public participation in the financial system. It states that the public must be encouraged to participate in the financial system and to provide input on the record-keeping requirements.

Corrections from J. Kelsey Jones

1) Wm Carr was buried in the old Baptist Burying Ground also known as Wisner Park Burying Ground in Elmira. Had marker there. Bodies and markers were removed to other cemeteries when they made a park. Many went to Woodlawn so he is perhaps buried there now. Woodlawn Cemetery office would have record if there. They are real helpful and perhaps Joan or someone could call them during regular hours. When just one look-up they will do over phone. His association with Wells was when he was living with his son for a period of time.

2) Solomon Judson and wife have a monument in Mosherville Cemetery. This is a four-sided 1800 period monument placed there sometime in the 1800's and they were evidently reinterred there. Judsons lived where later became John Roy farm. This is the first residence on main road north of Mosherville where Shutts now live and have an antique shop. Just north of this residence on main road is a bridge across Seeley Creek. At south end of bridge is a private road you can drive out and where they are getting gravel from. If you follow this road along tree line and look over you will see a sap house. North Wells Cemetery is on small knoll there. This could be same place where Judsons were buried as I believe this small cemetery was on land that was part of their farm or if it wasn't it bordered their farm, but I have no proof that Solomon and wife were buried there or elsewhere on their farm. Thus, I would just say they are buried at Mosherville vs John Roy farm. No one is going to know where John Roy farm was except for me and perhaps one or two others.

3) Reuben Rowlee of Wells should be Shubal Rowlee. I would assume perhaps typo because of two Reuben beside each other. I have no proof where Shubal is buried. Could be Mosherville, Coryland or family cemetery unknown to me. He has son Shubal Jr., in Mosherville but that does not mean his father is. Some of the old records refer to him as being buried Wells and this to me just means Wells township and is not referring to a cemetery. Elizabeth wife of Shubal died in Apr 1813 and William Keyes was suppose to be first death of an adult in Wells and he died 1813. Thus, Elizabeth would have been buried in one of the very early cemeteries Coryland or Mosherville or private family cemetery and Shubal most likely buried with her. I have always wanted to research and find out where they owned land in Wells which could give better indication of where buried.

JEREMIAH SHAW, a native of Bristol county, Rhode Island, born February 2, 1730, came to Sheshequin with his family in 1786. He married Abigail Campbell, and in 1772 removed to the state of New York, serving his country in the struggle for Independence. Seeking better opportunities he went to Wilkes Barre, where he remained only a few weeks, when through the persuasion of General Spalding, he decided to locate in Sheshequin.

He, accordingly, secured a boat, took his family on board with such effects as he had and came up the river, requiring a journey of several days. He settled the present Kinner farm, performing the part of a true pioneer, where his life came to a close May 29, 1815.

His wife died March 19, 1811, aged 64 years. The children of Jeremiah and Abigail Shaw are: Esther, Jedediah, Hannah, Ebenezer, Jeremiah, Benjamin, Lorin, Abigail, Phoebe and Deborah.

ESTHER married CHARLES MANCHESTER of Rhode Island, and died at Tarrytown, New York.

JEDEDIAH married MARTHA GORE, dau. of Silas Gore, who was killed at Wyoming 1778. Jedediah died May 15, 1800, in Sheshequin, aged 37 years.

HANNAH married HEZEKIAH TOWNSEND, died March 19, 1866, at Torry, New York, aged 100 years, 1 month and 26 days.

EBEBEZER, the second centerarian in the family, soon after attaining his majority, succeeded to the homestead. For many years he was constable for Ulster, and while acting in that capacity was re-quired to go to Wilkes Barre and Williamsport to make his returns to court. In 1801 he married CYNTHIA HOLCOMB, daughter of Eli Holcomb of Ulster. On September 5, 1871, he celebrated his 100th birthday anniversary, five generations being present to do him honor. It was his pride and boast that he voted for General Washington at his second election and at every presidential election up to the time of his death. He was a Freemason 70 years and at his demise, December 17, 1871, is said to have been the oldest in the state. Mrs. Shaw died April 10, 1868, aged 85 years. Their children, who married are as follows:

LAURA, to Sidney S. Bailey
HARRY to Polly Snyder
URIAH to Patience L. Segar
NORMAN to Mary Ann Marshall
HIRAM to Mahala McAlpine
MATILDA to Obadiah Gore

ABIGAIL, married WILLIAM BALL and lived near Geneva, New York, where she reared a family and died.

PHOEBE, married SAMUEL BARTLETT, Sheshequin, removed to Michigan with her husband.

DEBORAH, married DAVID EDDY, Penn Yan, New York, where she lived, reared a family and died. Some of her descendants have become distinguished as ministers of the Gospel and in the medical profession.

HANNAH SHAW and HEZEKIAH TOWNSEND:

Elijah Townsend was evidently the father or brother of Hezekiah Townsend, who married Hannah, daughter of Jeremiah Shaw, and had a son, Elijah Townsend, who settled to Rome township. The first Elijah sold to John Hinman, 1793, and removed to other parts.

PHOEBE SHAW and SAMUEL BARTLETT. Samuel lived on the farm with his father. He married Phoebe, daughter of Capt. Jeremiah Shaw. He took an active part in the early political struggles of the county and was chosen county auditor 1819. About 1834, he sold his interests to Colonel Kingsbury and removed to Michigan. Samuel's father, Samuel, was from Vermont. The father served in Ethan Allen's brigade during the Revolutionary War.

marriage within Ulster and Smithfield of which there is any record. Mr. Buck removed west.

Frederick Eiklor, a German, who had been wealthy and lost his property, followed his brother-in-law, Jesse Allen, to Wysox about 1786. In April, 1792, he supplied the trees for and set out Judge Gore's orchard (some yet bearing fruit). Whether he had a nursery in Wysox or brought the trees from Catskill, we have been unable to learn. Mr. Eiklor built and occupied a house in Towanda, where the store of M. E. Rosenfield now stands. One day while dressing flax it caught fire and burned the house. He then in 1798 joined his former neighbors, Henry Lent and Godfrey Vought, in the Rome settlement. In the year 1800 his wife died, being the first death in Rome township. The first school was taught by Mr. Eiklor, 1803, in a log school house within the present Rome borough. Mr. Eiklor had married Sarah, daughter of Samuel Baker, an Englishman. Their children were: Andrus, David, John, George, Susanna and Jennie. The Eiklor young people are remembered as "sweet singers, whose voices were always heard at the old-time parties." Mr. Eiklor and most of the family returned to Catskill.

David married Dena Huyck, resided in Standing Stone some years, removing to Huron, Ohio, where he died.

Andrus (Andrew) married, 1804, Catharine, daughter of Godfrey Vought, theirs being the second marriage in Rome. Their children were: Sally married Reuben Russell, Rome; Godfrey married Millie, daughter of Isaac Strobe, Rome; Polly married Jerry Morris, Rome; David married Sally, sister of Reuben Russell, who had been the wife of Isaac Vought; Daniel married Weltha Rowe, Rome; Betsy married Henry Wilmot, Rome. Mr. Eiklor died, 1831, and his wife, 1879, in her 97th year.

William Means, the first permanent settler of Towanda borough, was of Scotch-Irish descent. He was a son of Samuel Means, residing in Northumberland county at the breaking out of the Revolutionary War. Samuel Means and his oldest son were soldiers in the patriot army. The former died from wounds inflicted by the enemy; the son never returned, and is supposed to have been killed at the battle of Wyoming. The family remained in Northumberland until the mother was warned of the approach of Indians, when taking her children, one an infant six weeks old, in a canoe, and made her escape down the river. None too soon, however, for yet while in sight, the savages appeared and burned her house. The family afterwards returned, but the mother, whose maiden name was Clark, did not long survive, and the children were scattered among different families.

It is stated that "when Rudolph Fox fled with his family down the river (1778) they fell in with Samuel Means' family, and through them William Means learned of the country about Towanda. Soon

Samuel lived on the farm with his father. He married Phoebe, daughter of Captain Jeremiah Shaw. He took an active part in the early political struggles of the county and was chosen county auditor, 1819. About 1834 he sold his interests to Colonel Kingsbury and removed to Michigan.

Gerould (originally Jerauld) -Dr. James Jerauld (Gerould) a Hagenot, emigrated from France about 1680, married Martha Dutee of Boston and settled in Medfield, Mass., where he practiced medicine many years, retaining largely the habits and customs of a French gentleman. His children were James, Martha, Gamaliel, Stephen, Dutee, Mary, Joanna and Susannah. Gamaliel was thrice married, his first wife being Rebecca Lawson by whom his children were Gamaliel, Kate, Rebecca and Jabez.

Jabez Gerould, son of Gamaliel and Rebecca (Lawson) Gerould, in the year 1800 removed with his family from Connecticut; reaching the Susquehanna near its head-waters he floated down the river on a slab-raft to Queen Esther's flats where he resided a short time. Going to Smithfield he selected lands, erected a log house and the next year, (1801) moved his family in. His trials in the wilderness were short.
He was taken suddenly ill and died June 12, 1802 before medical aid could reach him, at the age of 53 years. He left eight children, the eldest of whom was 16 years of age. The mother for a time supported the family largely through her own efforts by spinning flax and receiving pay therefor in meal. The family occupied the log house until 1812 when they moved into their commodious framed dwelling. Mr. Ger-ould had married Demaris Bennett of Newtown, Conn. She lived to a good old age, her demise occurring March 20, 1829. Their children were Jerusha, James, Susannah, Ephraim Bennett, George, Ziba, Jabez Lawrence, Abel Judson and Theodore.

James, born May 5, 1784, married Lois Wood, died October 30, 1859; children: James Allen, Emeline, Emma Ann, Marcus B., Florilice C., Anna, Christianna, Samuel Wood, James Orville, Malvina and Lois Eveline.

Susannah, born January 1, 1786, married, February 12, 1804.

Ledgard married Celestia Holcomb and was the father of Laura, Jay, Hoyt, Helen and Burr.

John went to sea and was never afterwards heard of.

Isaac died unmarried in Wisconsin.

Fanny married Robert Clafin.

Mary married Harvey Kellogg.

Delight married Benjamin Holcomb.

Reed Brockaway, a gentleman of some literary attainment, who was interested in Connecticut lands, located within the present limits of Monroeton village in 1800. The Luzerne Federalist of July, 1801, says: "The Fourth of July was celebrated at Wysox (Towanda) by a numerous and respectable company. Wm. Means provided an entertainment, the style and elegance of which reflected great credit on his taste and industry. An oration was delivered by Reed Brockaway. After dinner a number of appropriate toasts were drank." In 1805 Mr. Brockaway was commissioned a justice of the peace for the Wysox district. He sold to Eliphalet Mason and left the county about 1807.

Samuel Bartlett, a native of Vermont, who was reared near the Green Mountains and served as a captain of one of the companies in Gen. Ethan Allen's brigade during the Revolutionary war, came to Sheshequin about 1800, locating on the Judson Macafee farm. He purchased a large tract of land, which he occupied until the time of his death, July 1, 1810, at the age of 64 years. In Vermont he had married a Miss Meigs who died before his removal to Sheshequin. Their children were:

Samuel Bartlett was one of the "Green Mountain Boys" and served under Gen. Ethan Allen.

Sergeant Timothy Culver served seven years and suffered prison hardships. He died in 1829, aged 88 years.

Jabez Fish was a member of Captain Bidlack's company and one of its eight survivors at the battle of Wyoming.

Capt. Stephen Fuller, himself an ardent patriot, was the father-in-law of Capt. James Bidlack (killed at Wyoming) and Col. John Franklin.

Obadiah and Samuel Gore had a long and exciting career in the struggle for Independence. They were sons of Obadiah Gore, a self-sacrificing patriot, who sent six sons and two sons-in-law to fight for liberty. Of these, three sons and both sons-in-law fell at the battle of Wyoming.

James Hines was from Balibay, Ireland. He probably came to Wyalusing at about the same time as Samuel Gordon. He married Sarah, daughter of Isaac Hancock, and moved to Pike.

Nathan Winton, June 6, 1793, conveys a piece of land in Wyalusing to Humphrey Brown. He remained a few years after this transaction.

Silas Beardsley became a settler in Standing Stone under Connecticut title, 1794. He early removed to Susquehanna county, where he died.

Thomas Tillotson was a settler in Pike, 1795, near the county line.

Jonas Gere from Rhode Island located in Canton township at Grover, 1795. He sold to Orr Scoville, 1800, and moved away.

Jonathan Prosser, a German, established himself at Canton Corners, 1795, making the first improvements within the present Canton borough. He sold to Jacob Granteer, 1801, and soon after moved to other parts.

Elijah Townsend was evidently the father or brother of Hezekiah Townsend, who married Hannah, daughter of Jeremiah Shaw, and had a son, Elijah, who settled in Rome township. The first Elijah sold to John Hinman, 1793, and removed to other parts.

Asa Flint came from Exter, Pa., and settled at Merryall, 1790. He sold to Elijah Camp and moved to Central New York about 1807. He was a brother-in-law of Jeremiah Lewis, both of whom had married sisters of Thomas Gardner. Thomas and Francis Gardner, brothers, lived at Merryall for a time, afterwards removing to New York state.

Richard Goff, a native of New England, came to Towanda creek, settling on the south side on the line between Towanda and Monroe, 1791. He improved a considerable farm and died thereon, May 19, 1829, aged 84 years. He had married Phoebe Hubbel, sister of Mrs. Samuel Cranmer. She died December 29, 1836, aged 72 years. Their children were: William, Humphrey, James, Amos, Sarah and David.

William married Delia, daughter of Rudolph Fox. He died December 12, 1877, in Canton township, aged about 88 years. Their children were: Christiana (Mrs. Samuel Dimmock), William, Harry, ——— (Mrs. Eli Granteer), Hiram, Wellington W. and George.

Humphrey married Eunice, daughter of Sheffield Wilcox of Albany and spent his last days in Monroe township.

Amos married Margaret, daughter of Rudolph Fox and moved to Ohio.

Sarah married a Mr. Reed and went to Illinois with her husband. William, Humphrey and Amos Goff were drafted at the close of the War of 1812, returning home after a month's absence.

Joseph Smith, a brother of Lockwood, located in Ulster, 1791. He was also a soldier of the Revolutionary war and one of the original Baptists in the county. He settled on what is known as the Anthony farm, now owned by Hon. R. S. Edmiston. At the house of Joseph Smith was formed the present Smithfield Baptist church in 1810, and also what is now the Waverly church in 1824. He died, 1834, aged 87 years, and is buried in the Milan cemetery. But little is known of his family. A son, Horace, was accidentally shot while watching a deer lick. Another son, Joseph, resided in Ulster and Sheshequin until the time of his death.

Abraham Parmeter, a native of Boston, who had served in the Revolutionary war, participating in the battles of Stillwater and Saratoga, came to Ulster, 1791. Here he married Patience Mills and continued to reside until 1813, when he removed with his family to Ohio.

James Campbell, a native of Blandford, Mass., who had been a soldier in the Revolutionary war, removed from Massachusetts with his

Many of the older people at Athens still remember him. His tall, stalwart frame was bent with age, the gleam of fire in his eye had faded, the sandy, bushy hair had become bleached, the scars left by the smallpox were mingled with the wrinkles and seams of age, but all his neighbors rose up before the hoary head, and listened with reverence to his words of counsel. It was his custom, later in life, whenever he attended the burial of one of the old citizens, at the grave to make some remarks about the deceased. These words and the impression which they made are still remembered by many.

An anecdote has been related which illustrates Col. Franklin's retentive memory. This he retained to the last. He could tell the events, in their order and with great minuteness, which had occurred in the valley from the period of its first occupation by the white people. He knew every man and his history on the Susquehanna company's purchase, and the history of every tract of land which had been occupied. In all questions relating to settlement or occupancy, his testimony was invaluable and conclusive. Many of those depositions, where they could be obtained, have thrown great light on our early history.

He was a ready writer. His pen was constantly employed. In writing the history of the purchase, in taking copies of legal papers and documents, in writing letters, in keeping a journal, the amount of writing done by him was enormous. Many of those papers have been preserved, but the great mass have been scattered and destroyed.

He was earnest in his convictions, and ardent in maintaining them. He believed the claim of the Susquehanna company was a valid one. No person can read his argument in its defense without amazement at the amount of labor expended in procuring and arranging the facts, and the skill with which they are made to answer his purpose. It has been said that as respects the great principles on which real estate is held in this country, his knowledge has never been surpassed.

In his earlier years Franklin and his wife were communicants in the Congregational church. After the death of his first wife, and in the excitement and conflicts of his middle life, his religious feelings seem to have been kept in the background; but in his latter life they returned with renewed vigor. To his friends he confessed his departures from his professions, and his determination to live a better life. This he did, spending much of his time in reading the Bible and in devotion. There are old people now living who remember with great distinctness his long, earnest prayers.

In politics Col. Franklin was a zealous Federalist, and, wielding so large an influence in Luzerne, in the then nearly balanced state of parties in Pennsylvania, he was courted or countenanced by eminent men, and even the heart of his old enemy, Timothy Pickering, so far relented that they exchanged civilities, and, it is understood, dined together at the secretary's table. Although usually grave and dignified in his demeanor, there was a vein of sly humor often mingled in his conversation. At one time, in giving his evidence before court, referring to some transaction which took place about the time of his abduction, he observed that about that time he was called "on important business to Philadelphia; he had just gone in company with several gentlemen to that city." At another time he referred to his moving to Athens as immediately after his return from a protracted visit to Philadelphia.

Col. Franklin died at Athens, at his home, March 1, 1831, aged eighty-one years three months and five days. He was buried on a little gravel bluff overlooking the highway, and in plain view of Tioga Point, only a few rods north of his mansion. A view of his burial-place is here given. Abigail, the colonel's last wife, died in Athens, Jan.

COL. FRANKLIN'S GRAVE.

30, 1834, in her eighty-third year. She was buried beside him, and a plain marble slab marks their graves.

Of his children, Billa settled first at Palmyra, N. Y., afterwards at St. Alban's, N. Y., where he died, leaving a family of nine children; Amos, by profession a physician, settled at Cayuga village, and died there, Oct. 11, 1804, leaving one son, Henry, who died without children. The daughter, Kezia, married Dr. Solomon Beebe, settled at Geneva, N. Y., and died without children. The widow Bidlack had, previous to her marriage with Col. Franklin, Stephen, who was seven years old at the time of the massacre, settled at Spencer, N. Y., and died there; Sally, married a Mr. Chitsie, and settled in New York State; Hettie, married William Patrick, settled first in Wysox, and then moved to Michigan,—she was the mother of the late Gen. Welles' first wife; and James, who settled in Sheshequin.

CHAPTER IX.

ORGANIZATION OF THE COUNTY AND THE ERECTION OF TOWNSHIPS.

THE northeastern part of the Indian purchase of 1768, which included the greater part of the territory of Bradford, was attached to Northampton county; but as there were not more than three or four families, except the Moravian missionaries, residing within the present bounds of this county previous to the erection of Northumberland, the State made no attempt to exercise jurisdiction over this part of her domain.

On the 27th of March, 1772, the county of Northumberland was established, including the northern part of Northampton and comprising the Wyoming settlements on the Susquehanna. At this time there does not seem to have been anything like townships or election districts in this part of the State, the several portions of the territory being designated by districts whose boundaries were not very clearly defined. In 1783 the legislature of Pennsylvania appointed Joseph Montgomery, William Montgomery, and Moses McClean commissioners to proceed to Wyoming, endeavor to allay the disturbances, and establish civil government there. In the discharge of their duties, in the month of April of that year, they divided the Wyoming settlements into three townships, called respectively Wyoming, Shawanese, and Stoke; the latter township covered this county. Among the returns of surveys at Harrisburg is the following:

"A Draught of a tract of land called —, situate joining Land surv'd for Job Chillaway and others at Wyalosing, in Stoke township, North'd County, containing four hundred & nineteen &  $\frac{1}{4}$  [acres], with the usual allowance of six per cent. for Roads, &c. Surveyed for John Lawson, the 10th day of October, 1783, in pursuance of a warrant dated the 18th day of Feb'y, 1775.

"by WM. GRAY, D. S.

"To John Lukens, Esqr., Surveyor General."

It will be observed that this survey was made in October of the same year the township was set off; but the country was so far distant, it being sixty miles to the nearest justice, that practically it was beyond the jurisdiction of the commonwealth.

On the 25th of September, 1786, an act was passed erecting the county of Luzerne out of the northern part of Northumberland. The limits of the new county embraced not only present Luzerne, but Wyoming, Susquehanna, and Bradford. On an old map in my possession its east line is run from the fourth mile-stone south to the Lehigh river; the north line is the line of the State from the fourth to the eightieth mile-stone, and a part of its west line coincides with the present line between Bradford and Tioga counties. Dec. 27, 1787, an act was passed providing for an election on the first of the following February, at which Col. Nathan Denison was chosen to the supreme executive council; John Franklin, member of assembly; and Lord Butler, Esq., high sheriff. Col. Timothy Pickering was appointed prothonotary, and William Hooker Smith, Benjamin Carpenter, James Nesbit, Timothy Pickering, Matthias Hollenback, Nathan Kingsley, and Obadiah Gore justices of the peace and of the court of common pleas for the county. Thus, for the first time, the people on the North Branch of the Susquehanna were represented in the legislature of the commonwealth, and had courts to which they could resort which were not prejudiced against them because they were New England people.

At the June sessions, 1788, the court agreed to the expediency and propriety of dividing the county into districts, for the election of justices of the peace, in the following manner, to wit:

I. From the upper line of the county to the place at which the road crosses Roswell Franklin's mill-creek [near where Mr. Lanning lives in Wysox], by an east and west line comprehending both sides of the river, to be called the First district,—one justice.

II. From the last-mentioned line to the mouth of Wyalusing creek, by an east and west line comprehending both sides of the river, to be called the Second district,—one justice.

III. From the last-mentioned line to the mouth of Teague's creek, by an east and west line comprehending both sides of the river, to be called the Third district,—one justice.

The remaining districts lay outside of the present lines of Bradford. Noah Murray was commissioned justice in the first district by the supreme executive council, his commission bearing date Nov. 23, 1788. Obadiah Gore also lived in this district, and Nathan Kingsley in the third district. I can find no record of any justice for the second district.

At the March sessions, 1790, of the court, held at Wilkes-Barre, "It is ordered by the justices of this court that the county of Luzerne be divided into eleven townships, by the following names and descriptions, to wit:

"1. Tioga, bounded on the north by the north line of the State, on the east by the east line of the county, on the south by an east and west line which shall strike the Standing Stone, on the west by the west line of the county.

"2. Wyalusing, bounded north by the south line of Tioga, on the east by the east line of the county, on the south by an east and west line passing through the mouth of Meshoppen creek, and on the west by the west line of the county."

The township of Tioga as thus described was seventy-six miles in length from east to west, and a trifle more than eighteen miles in width from north to south. The township of Wyalusing was the same length, and a little more than ten miles in breadth. The next township below, Tunkhannock, cut off a small triangle of the south part of the county, but it was then and for several years after an unbroken, uninhabited wilderness.

At the April sessions, 1795, a petition was presented to the court asking for a division of Tioga township by an east and west line passing through a small stream on the east side of the Susquehanna, southwesterly of Breakneck, the north part to be called Tioga and the south part "Wisocks." The prayer of the petitioners was granted.

The earliest assessment we have been able to find is for 1796. The following is the list of taxables in each of the three townships. Those marked with a * in Wyalusing belong to Wyoming county, and those marked the same way in Tioga were in present Susquehanna county. In the spelling the assessment roll has been followed.*

The whole valuation, $71,789; tax, $358.94; number of resident taxables, 164; non-resident, 5; number of acres of improved land, 2138; of unimproved, 22,290.

Comparing these figures, there were resident in the county just 400 taxables, whose total valuation was $148,642, who occupied 4502 acres of improved land, 57,699 acres unimproved. This assessment also furnishes the following interesting statistics: there were six distilleries, four inns, six blacksmiths, twelve carpenters, four physicians, eleven mills, and nine stores in the county.

At the November sessions, 1796, a petition from Simon Spalding and others was presented to court praying for the division of Tioga township. The court appointed Moses Coolbaugh, Simon Spalding, and Elisha Satterlee commissioners to examine and report at the next sessions whether it is necessary to have said township divided, and if so, in what manner. January 17, 1797, the commissioners report in favor of dividing the township "on the dividing line between Athens and Ulster [Connecticut surveys], then extending on an east and west line as the line of Ulster and Athens doth extend." The report was approved, and it was so ordered. The north township received the name of Athens, and the south, Ulster, and thus the name Tioga, which for centuries had been given to the confluence of the two rivers, was lost to our county. There were now four townships in the county,—Athens, Ulster, Wysox, and Wyalusing; each of the first three about six miles from north to south and seventy-five from east to west.

In 1801 three townships were erected, which included a part of the territory of the county: RUSH, whose boundaries are thus described: "Beginning at the forty-first milestone, thence east thirteen miles to the twenty-eighth milestone, thence south eighteen and one-half miles, thence west eighteen miles on the north line of Wyalusing, and due east from the Standing Stone, thence north five miles and sixty-eight chains, thence east five miles, thence north twelve miles to the place of beginning."

Mt. ZION, whose lines began at the fifty-second milestone, thence south twelve miles and fifty-one and one-half chains to the south line of Tioga, thence east eleven miles, thence north twelve miles and fifty-one and one-half chains to the forty-first milestone, thence west eleven miles to the place of beginning. The name Orwell was subsequently substituted for that of Mt. Zion.

BURLINGTON, whose bounds began on the north line of Wysox and south line of Tioga, at the intersection of the Claverack line, thence south twelve degrees east, one hundred and twenty-seven chains, thence south until it intersects the line between Wysox and Wyalusing, thence west to the county line, thence on the county line north to the south line of Tioga township, thence east to the place of beginning.

Col. John Franklin, the earnest and persistent advocate of the Connecticut claim, was, of course, very popular among the New England men of Luzerne county, by whom he was elected every fall to represent them in the legislature, where every opportunity was seized by him to vindicate the justness of the Connecticut title, and protest, in most bitter language, against the greed of the Pennsylvania land-holders, and the unusual severity of the measures taken to secure their titles. He was a continual thorn in the side of the "Pennsylvania land-jobbers," who at this time possessed controlling influence in the legislature, and they determined to get rid of him. To do this, at first charges were preferred against him; but finding these insufficient, it was determined to legislate him out of the House, to which his numerous friends determined to send him. To effect this, the northwestern part of Luzerne, including the residence of Col. Franklin, was attached to Lycoming county. An act, approved April 3, 1804, provided that that part of Luzerne county beginning where the northeast branch of the Susquehanna crosses the State line, thence southerly to the northeast corner of Claverack, thence by the northerly side of Claverack to its westerly corner, thence in a direct westerly direction to the line of the county, be attached to the county of Lycoming.

The line which dis severed this part of Luzerne cut in two parts the township of Burlington. That part north of the line retained the name of Burlington. Of that part south of the line the court, at its August session, 1804, decreed: "On the petition of Dennison Kingsbury and others, it is ordered by the court that that part of the township of Burlington now remaining in the county of Luzerne shall hereafter be called and known by the name of Canton." Seeley Crofut was appointed the constable, and Aaron Cook and Henry Segar supervisors.

At the April session, 1807, on the petition of Job Irish and others, setting forth that owing to the inconvenience, and at times the impossibility, of crossing the river, especially at the time of the spring elections, they pray for a new township on the west side of the river. The commissioners appointed report in favor of granting a new township, beginning at the mouth of Durell's creek, thence south 45° west, to the county line, thence on said line west to the corner of Canton, thence north on the east line of Canton to the county line, thence as the said line runs to the river, thence down the river to the place of beginning. The report was confirmed finally at the January sessions, 1808.

The western part of Ulster, in length nineteen miles from the west line of the county, was set off into a separate township, by the name of Smithfield, between 1804 and 1810, but I have been unable to get the date from the Lycoming county records.

ELECTION DISTRICTS.

By an act of assembly, passed Sept. 13, 1785, entitled an act to regulate the general elections and to prevent frauds therein, it was provided that each of the counties of the commonwealth be divided into election districts. By this

April 7, 1744, married Hannah Avery (born Dec. 18, 1744), March 22, 1764. He died March 21, 1821, and she April 24, 1829.

6. Samuel Gore, son of (4) Obadiah and Hannah Gore, born May 24, 1761, married about 1785, Sarah Brokaw, born April 10, 1764. He died May 2, 1834, and she Nov. 17, 1845.

Arnold Franklin was a settler in 1784 in Claverack (Sheshequin), under Strong and Hogeboom, as testified by Isaac Foster, in the minutes of the commissioners under the act of 1799. He was proprietor of a half-right, as appears of record, and held his possession on the said half-right.*

The Franklins were a large and respectable family, distant relatives of Dr. Benjamin Franklin. Of the Wyoming family there were seven brothers, all of whom had large families, from whom a numerous progeny has sprung. Seven of the family were killed at the Wyoming slaughter; John, Jonathan, Roswell, and Jehiel were of these seven brothers, Jonathan being killed in the battle. Arnold Franklin was a son of Jonathan, and was also in that battle, but escaped. He owned the island opposite his farm, which was next above the Ichabod Blackman farm. Mrs. Blackman was Arnold Franklin's sister. The island contained then about sixty acres, and had been cleared by the Indians, and was very productive; they had used it for their corn-patches. In 1804-5, Mr. Franklin sold out his property to Richard Horton and removed to Palmyra. While there his wife (Abigail Foster, a sister of Abiel Foster) died. He married again, and came to Smithfield, and lived with his son William, a Presbyterian preacher, who preached at Smithfield for a number of years. The father and son both died in that place, the former, February 20, 1839, at the age of seventy-four years. Arnold was captured at Wyoming, but after three months' captivity, escaped from the Indians on the Genesee, and made his way back to his uncle Roswell Franklin, who lived at Kingston, by whom he was adopted into his family. Roswell Franklin had a son Roswell, Jr., about Arnold's age. The two boys—they were about twenty years old—were made prisoners by the Indians soon after, as they were at work in the field near the house, and taken to Canada, where they remained three years, when they were released or escaped. With great difficulty they made their way home, to the joy and surprise of their friends, who had supposed them dead, not having heard anything respecting them since they went to the field to work, three years before.

About the year 1780 a small clearing was made in the woods south of the river, opposite the present city of Binghamton, and about 1782-83 these two young men went there from the Wyoming valley to continue the improvements, taking with them six oxen and a horse, to be kept upon or from the productions of the small patch already cleared. They began a small fallow on the north side of the river, cutting the first tree that was felled within the limits of the present city of Binghamton. They gathered some fodder,—enough, as they supposed, to keep their stock through the winter ensuing, but were mistaken. They shoveled off the snow from the ground on the south side and found grass, but their oxen in crossing the river upon the ice, which was covered with snow, broke through and were lost. Their horse died also, and their stock of provisions became entirely exhausted. They, therefore, were compelled to make an attempt to return to Kingston.

They made a small canoe, in which they embarked, taking with them the hide of the horse, on which to subsist during their journey. Their progress was slow, tedious, and dangerous. They frequently had to get out of the canoe to dislodge it from impediments, and sometimes were compelled to haul it a considerable distance by land to avoid obstructions in the river. At night they camped on the bank, and when pressed by hunger, cut slices off the raw hide, shaved off the hair, roasted it, and chewed it for their eating. At one of these halts for rations a mouse, disturbed by the fire, was caught and added to the repast.

The first house which came in their line of observation was that of Mr. Fox, near the mouth of Towanda creek, where they made a brief stay, and then, with renewed strength and courage, continued their voyage seventy miles farther to their homes in Wyoming, having endured fatigues and toils happily passed away from this country forever.

Moses Park came to Sheshequin about 1785-86. His father was a sea-captain, and was lost at sea when the son was of tender years. While at Sheshequin he taught school, which probably was the first school taught in the town. He married Polly Spalding, and removed to what was called New Connecticut, in Ohio (Western Reserve), where he remained six years. His nearest white neighbor at the time of his arrival there was eight miles distant. He returned to Sheshequin, and lived on the farm now owned by Obadiah Gore. He remained here five or six years, and then went to Athens, living about a mile below the village, on the east side of the river, where he kept a ferry for a number of years.

He commenced to preach when he was very young, and before leaving Sheshequin for Ohio; and he continued to preach, after his return, at Sheshequin and Athens the remainder of his life. He was at first a Baptist, but changed his views (after a certain famous discussion had with Mr. Murray, in which he, Mr. Park, was seconded by Joseph Kinney), and embraced the doctrine of universal salvation, to which he ever after held. He was born in Groton, Mass., Aug. 8, 1766, and his wife, July 19, 1776. They were married March 14, 1792.

Their children were Cynthia; Clarissa, married Nathaniel Flower, June 27, 1816; Harriet; Amanda, married Jabez Fish, and is still living (was born Nov. 24, 1799); Chester S., Moses, Jr., George, Silas Warren, Simon S., Mary, and Sterry.

In 1786, Capt. Jeremiah Shaw, a Revolutionary soldier, came to Sheshequin, together with his son Ebenezer, then a lad of fourteen or fifteen years. Capt. Shaw was born Feb. 2, 1730. He was a son of Jeremiah Shaw, who was born in 1700, whose father, Israel Shaw, was born in 1663. Ebenezer Shaw was born in Little Compton, Bristol county,

R. I., Sept. 5, 1771. In 1772, Capt. Shaw moved with his family to Nine Partners, in Dutchess county, N. Y., where they resided about four years, and in 1776 moved to Noblestown, in the same county, where they remained nine or ten years, and in 1786 removed to Wilkes-Barre, whence, after a short stop of three or four weeks, they came to Sheshequin, arriving there April 21, which has been the home of the father, son, and grandson, Uriah, since that time while they have habited in the flesh. Capt. Shaw died May 29, 1815, and his wife, Abigail (Campbell), March 19, 1811, aged about sixty-four years. Ebenezer Shaw died December 17, 1871, aged one hundred years three months and twelve days. He married Cynthia Holcomb, Feb. 26, 1801, who died in Sheshequin, April 10, 1868, aged eighty-five years. She came into Ulster with her father and mother March 11, 1793, at the age of eleven years.

Ebenezer, at his majority (1792), went into the lake region, where he remained eight years; returning in 1800, he bought a portion of his father's farm, and the balance of it in 1811. The children of Jeremiah Shaw were Jedediah, Ebenezer, Jeremiah, Lorin, Hannah, Phebe, and Elizabeth.

Peter Snyder came from La Fayette, Sussex county, N. J., to Sheshequin in 1788-89, by the way of the "beech woods," reaching the Susquehanna not far from the Great Bend. His children were Peter and Jacob, by his first wife, and William, John, Pitney, Betsy, Katy, and Nancy, by the second. His second wife also had two children by her first marriage, who came to Sheshequin with the family of Mr. Snyder, Thomas and Mary. John remained on the old homestead until about 1855. It was in the upper part of the valley, and is now owned by C. H. Shepard. Mr. Snyder began and operated rather extensively for the times a tannery, saddlery, harness, and shoemaking business combined for some years. His son William, at the age of fourteen years, went into the business as an apprentice in the tannery, and continued in it, buying his father's interest subsequently, and operating the business alone. He also built the house where his son William now resides, and kept it as a hotel for a number of years. Peter Snyder died Jan. 14, 1822, aged seventy-seven years.

The records show a deed from Simon Spalding to William Spalding for "lot 11, in Ulster, on the east side of the river, in a place called New Sheshequin," excepting one acre for a burying-ground. Also, a deed from William H. Spalding and Simon Spalding to William Snyder for lot 11, which is the lot on which William Spalding resides, adjoining Jabez Fish on the north, Harry Spalding on the south, Susquehanna river on the west, and to extend east two miles.

Daniel Brink came to Sheshequin from Stroudsburg about 1790-1. He owned a place next above the Tuttle farm. His father, Benjamin Brink, was a Revolutionary soldier, and owned the place where David Horton now resides. The Brinks went west about 1855.

Abel Newell was a very early comer to Sheshequin, but the exact date of his settlement cannot now be fixed. He was from Springfield, Mass. He married a daughter of Ethan Wilcox. She had a brother killed at the battle of Wyoming. Abel Newell owned the farm now occupied by his son, Stephen Newell, next above the Arnold Franklin farm. David Horton married a daughter of Mr. Newell. Mr. Newell died at about the age of seventy-four years. His family, except Stephen, are all dead, or removed from the county.

George Murfee was born in Esquire Depew's barn, on the Delaware, near Stroudsburg, Sept. 30, 1778. James Bidlack was born at the same place. The fathers of each of these boys were killed at Wyoming, and their mothers fled with the fugitives to the Delaware. Murfee's mother was a sister of Judge Gore, and when George was seven years old he went to live with the judge, and remained there until he was twenty-one. He carried the mail from Tioga Point. Stephen Morgan lived on the place now occupied by Obadiah Gore, son of Avery Gore, and Daniel Curtis was on the place before Morgan, and built a small log house on it. Matthew Rogers was among the early settlers also. Henry Hiney, a German, came, via Canada, to Sheshequin in 1789, and made a beginning on the same farm.

COLONEL JOSEPH KINGSBURY

was one of the prominent men of Bradford County. He was born in Enfield, Conn., on May 19, 1774, "just as the cradle of liberty began to rock," as he used to express it. His father, Lemuel Kingsbury, was a farmer of that town, and Joseph was bred to the same occupation, but received, nevertheless, a good education for the times, and familiarized himself with the rules of surveying. He was in the family of his paternal grandfather, for whom he was named, much of the time, who was a rigid Presbyterian, and who offered to send him to Yale college if he would prepare himself for the ministry; but the offer, tempting as it was, had too heavy conditions attached for the young man, who looked, as all people more or less did, upon a minister as little less than a demi-god, and felt that he was not of that material of which gods were made, and the offer was declined. At nineteen years of age he left the friends of his youth, and with a horse, a small sum of money, and a compass, he turned his face towards the Susquehanna, to find a home and employment. He arrived at Sheshequin in the spring of 1793,* on the very day he was nineteen years old, and resolved to make it his home, and which became so for the remainder of his life. He engaged at once with Gen. Simon Spalding as a surveyor, and began a career that culminated in his appointment as agent for the vast landed estates of Vincent Le Ray de Chaumont, known as the Le Ray lands, Count De Chastelleux, McEwen and Davidson, the Bank of North America, and other tracts granted by the government to liquidate the payment of money loaned to carry on the War of the Revolution. Upon the death of Gen. Spalding, whose daughter, Anna, he had previously married, Col. Kingsbury became the owner of that portion of the old homestead upon which the original mansion stood, where he and his amiable wife reared a family of ten children to manhood and womanhood, and lived to see them all married and well established in life.

His biographer says of him, "Col. Kingsbury was a man of marked characteristics. Possessed of more than ordinary ability by nature, he had brought to the storehouse of his information large additions by thought and reflection, gained from extensive reading and observation. In the field of political discussion he was an adversary of acknowledged force. He was bold, terse, and argumentative as a writer; modest, timid, and reserved as a speaker. In disputes among the early settlers he exercised an extensive influence, and, by individual appeal as agent, he was instrumental in getting the interest abated from their land contracts, by the foreign owners, three several times prior to settlement. He became connected at an early day with the Masonic fraternity, and held a leading position in the order. Without giving special attention to politics, he was taken up as a candidate for congress, contrary to his wishes, and received, in a district strongly opposed to him politically, a vote nearly sufficient for an election. From an early period to his death he was a member and generous contributor to the religious denomination of Universalists. Exercising charity to all, and inculcating principles of morality and integrity in all around him, he strove to lay the foundation of good principles in the community, and among those who with him had opened up the forests to the sunlight and let in its genial rays upon the hearts and homes of the pioneer settlers."

He also owned and cultivated one of the choicest and most beautiful farms in the valley of Sheshequin, and his home was the seat of a most generous and refined hospitality.

He was for many years the colonel of the militia of his district, and postmaster of the town till near the close of his life. He died at his residence, in Sheshequin, June 22, 1849, in his seventy-fifth year, leaving behind him a devoted wife, who died September 18, 1864, in her eighty-sixth year, in the house where she was born.

Col. Kingsbury's family consisted of five sons and five daughters, viz.:

Mary, the eldest, married Allen Smith, and settled in Steuben Co., N. Y., where she gave birth to three children,—a son and two daughters. She now resides in Towanda, with her daughter, Mrs. Chester Spalding, and has reached the age of eighty years.

Almira, the second daughter, married Charles Comstock, and settled at Athens, in this county, having had one daughter and four sons born, all of whom reside away from the county of their nativity; the mother making her home principally with her daughter, in the State of New York, having attained the age of seventy-seven years.

Byron, the third, and oldest son, married Wealthy Ann, daughter of Avery Gore, and moved, in 1824, to the farm now in the borough of Towanda, upon which his widow and remaining family still reside. "His ready wit and genial humor made his society much sought after, while his knowledge of human nature rendered his quaint portraiture of men and incidents, coming under his observation, enlivening topics of social intercourse." He died in 1859, at the age of fifty-six, leaving a widow with two sons and two daughters, out of a family of nine children.

Burton, the fourth child, and second son, married Rowena, the daughter of Judge Scott, and settled in Towanda as a merchant, where he remained till his death, in 1868.

They had three sons and one daughter, who, with the exception of one son who volunteered in the Rebellion, and died in Kentucky, are living, but not residents of the county. Mrs. Burton Kingsbury is still residing in Towanda.

Eliza, the fifth child, married Ira H. Stephens, who subsequently became sheriff of Bradford County, and a prominent citizen of his day. They had five sons and one daughter, of whom but three sons are living. She died in Towanda in 1867, aged sixty-two years.

Henry, the sixth child, married Matilda Clisby, and settled on a farm in Sheshequin, from which he removed in 1854. Himself and wife are now living in Towanda, never having had any children.

Joseph, the seventh child, married Matilda, daughter of Col. Hiram Mix, became a merchant in Towanda, and continued in that business for a number of years, subsequently receiving the appointment of deputy collector of internal revenue, which he held for fifteen years. He and his wife reside in Towanda, having reared seven children,—four sons and three daughters,—of whom all survive but one son.

Marion, the eighth child, married George Sanderson, a lawyer for many years of Towanda. He was also State senator, and is at present a banker in Scranton, Pa. They had five children,—three daughters and two sons,—four of whom are living, but none are residents of the county.

Helen, the ninth child, married M. C. Mercur, lived for a short time in Towanda, and died in 1840, leaving a son, who resides in the west.

Lemuel S., the tenth child, married Sarah Osborne, and resides upon the homestead farm in Sheshequin, in the house refitted from the old mansion occupied by Col. Kingsbury, and originally by Gen. Spalding. They have three children, all daughters. The eldest married Orrin D. Kinney, grandson of Joseph Kinney, one of the first pioneers of Sheshequin. They live in Towanda. The other daughters, one married, live with their parents on the homestead.

W. Wallace Kingsbury, son of Byron, and grandson of Col. Jos. Kingsbury, is the present secretary of the Historical Society of Bradford County. He has been a resident of nine States and one Territory, twice a member of the legislature, once a member of a constitutional convention, and a delegate to congress from the Territory of Minnesota. He has also been a contributor to the political literature of his county, and until recently was somewhat active in politics. He is now living in Towanda, in the house where he was born, on the farm given by Avery Gore to his mother a few years subsequent to her marriage with his father, Byron Kingsbury.

A. H. Kingsbury, also a son of Byron, is married, and has four children, and has always resided upon and worked the farm of his mother.

On a gravel knoll on this farm, near the banks of the Susquehanna, numerous Indian arrow-heads and pieces of pottery were gathered in earlier days than now, the former being used by the settlers for gun-flints.

Ichabod Blackman, son of Elisha Blackman, of Wyoming valley, came from Lebanon, Conn. He was in the Indian battle, but, escaping, the family returned to Connecticut. Ichabod came to Sheshequin in the spring of 1794, built a log house just by the road to the ferry, and

EBENEZER SHAW.

The subject of this sketch, Ebenezer Shaw, was born Sept. 5, 1771, a subject of the tyrant king, George III. As a child he listened to the talk of his father and the neighbors, down in Rhode Island, about the illegal and unjust taxations imposed, and the degree of resistance that was justifiable and expedient. The tea bait he saw spurned; he heard the fearful booming of the coming Revolution from the fields of Lexington, Concord, and Bunker Hill; and his boyish hurrahs may have mingled with the rejoicings over the Declaration of Independence. He heard, during seven years, the ebbs and the flows of the battles of the war for independence, and, most welcome of all, the news of peace.

Israel Shaw, the great-grandfather of our subject, was born at Little Compton, in the province of Rhode Island, in the year 1660, twenty-four years after its settlement by Roger Williams. Jeremiah Shaw, his grandfather, was born in the same place, in the year 1700. Jeremiah, Jr., his father, was born at Little Compton, in the year 1730, and our subject, as previously stated. In 1772 the family of Jeremiah, Jr., removed to the east bank of the Hudson, and in 1786 came to Sheshequin, making the journey via Stroudsburg, the valley of the Lehigh, crossing the mountains to Wyoming valley, and thence up the Susquehanna to Sheshequin, arriving there April 1. His father's family consisted of ten children, five boys and five girls, our subject outliving them all, and at the centennial celebration, held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Obadiah Gore, in Sheshequin, every branch of this numerous family were represented, except that of Phebe Bartlett. There were five generations present, the last being a daughter of Mrs. De Kelley, who was formerly Anna Powell, the daughter of B. F. Powell, formerly editor of the Bradford Argus; her mother was a daughter of Sidney Bailey, who married a daughter of Ebenezer Shaw. Mr. Shaw was married to Cynthia Holcomb in 1801; the fruits of this union were nine children, five of whom are living. He came from a long-lived ancestry; his father died in 1815, at the age of eighty-five; and his grandfather and great-grandfather lived to very advanced ages. He inherited a physical organization the most powerful and enduring. His life labors were ever in the open air, and those of his early days were such as to develop a strong and vigorous constitution. His habits were the most regular, and his food plain and simple. He never used tobacco in any form, and for the last forty years of his life wholly abstained from the use of stimulating drinks. He was genial, jolly, and happy, fond of fun, frolics, and jokes, allowed no cares to worry and weigh him down, and had no reflections of wrong-doing to annoy and disturb his hours of rest. Such were the conditions which prolonged his life to fivescore years. It was his pride and boast that he voted for General Washington at his second election in 1792, and at every presidential election up to the date of his death. In 1801 he joined Rural Amity Lodge, No. 70, F. and A. M., at Athens (Tioga Point), and at the date of his death was probably the oldest Mason in the Union. He held various offices in his lodge from time to time; first as Tyler; then eight years as Senior Deacon; Junior Warden, three years; and Treasurer, fifteen years. And the records show that during those twenty-nine years there was rarely a meeting that he was not present. Brother Shaw also received in the chapter then working in Athens the degrees of Capitular Masonry. Jan. 21, 1813, he was exalted a Royal Arch Mason. May 27, 1847, at the re-institution of the lodge, he was present as an acting officer of the Grand Lodge, with Col. Kingsbury and others of the old members. His name appears as an attendant until the younger officers were fully instructed, when his presence became less and less frequent; and well it should, for he was then upwards of seventy-five years of age. Mr. Shaw, in the declining years of his life, was tenderly cared for by his daughter, Mrs. Obadiah Gore, near his former residence. He died Dec. 17, 1871, over one hundred years of age. A large concourse of Masons followed him to his last resting-place.

Bradford County Deaths

Deaths of the Pioneers 1840 - 1869

These deaths are taken from "Twigs from Family Trees" by the Rev. Edward Coolbaugh Hoagland, pub. 1940, Wysox, PA. These records were extracted from two Bradford County newspapers - the "Bradford Porter" and the "Bradford Reporter". They do not list all deaths in the Bradford Co. area - only those published. This is a valuable source of information on Bradford Co. pioneers who moved away at a later date. A short list of abbreviations follows. A list of abbreviations for locations in Bradford County is at the end of this listing.

This database of military veterans was compiled by Dick McCracken in his eleven years as Directory of Veterans' Affairs in Bradford County. He has made it available to the Tri-Counties site for the use of the genealogical community. There are nearly 8500 individuals in the file. This is current as of November 1999.

Be sure to scroll to the right to see the cemetery and township in which the person is buried. Once you have determined that, you can link to the Bradford County Township in which that cemetery is located to see if we have the full cemetery listing on the site yet.

Geneva, April 7th, 1874 - The farmers in this foggy old town have at last been awakened to the importance of the Grange movement. Guy Shaw, Deputy for this District, organized a Grange at the White Schoolhouse, on the Preemption road this afternoon, at which twenty-four members were initiated into the Order.

Crystal Springs – In the spring of 1865, when the country was crazy with oil speculations, a deer-lick on lot 50 in Barrington affording rich appearances of this sort, a company was formed in the vicinity to bore for oil. At a depth of forty-three feet the water came up so abundantly it was difficult to go father. This was soon found to have medicinal virtues for which it has acquired great fame. Erasmus WRIGHT and Benson SMITH, becoming proprietors of the location, erected in 1867 a house of four stories, 100 feet long and 42 wide, with a two-story wing 70 by 32 feet. The place has become a very popular resort and very many people who have tested the virtues of the water have believe themselves much benefited by its use. The flow of water is sufficient to fill a two-inch tube constantly. A house was opened at the spring by Sylvester BOWERS in 1866, before the larger structure was built. Shortly after this mammoth hotel had become popular it was completely destroyed by fire, but the waters of this immense spring had become so popular, building lots had been laid out and some of them had been built upon. A post-office had been located, a mail route established, a store built and in operation; real estate began to boom, consequently the hotel was rebuilt, but it had scarcely been finished before it met a similar fate and was completely destroyed. Although this looked gloomy and discouraging, the spring had built up quite a little village, and the call for another hotel, which, in the course of a year, Mr. SMITH had well nigh built. A noted M.D. DEBORAH built a large sanitarium with all modern improvements, hot and cold baths, steam baths, etc., which was attached to the springs. This called a number form abroad for treatment. A park was laid out and wealthy men from a distance built cottages for summer resorts. Here the genial Fred FURNACE held forth his private grounds, cottage and curiosities. A pavilion was built and things looked booming, when for a third time the hotel was destroyed by fire. This finished up the old proprietor and the property went into the hands of a Mr. RATHBUN, of Elmira, who enlarged the sanitarium, remodeled it, converted it into a hotel, and it was thrown open again to the public under the supervision of Colonel BAKER for two seasons; this last season of 1891 it flourished under the management of E. GULICK, of Starkey.

In the summer of 1891 a church building was erected at the Springs and dedicated in September of the same year,, said church to be a union church for the use of those of all or of no denomination that chose to repair there for worship Sunday afternoon. The trustees were elected from different denominations, the pulpit to be supplied from the Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist Churches of Dundee.

Post offices, Manufactures, etc - There are three post offices in this town. Barrington post office, situated at Warsaw; Crystal Springs at the springs, and Crosby at Crosby Landing, on the shore of Keuka Lake. Crosby village is situated on the east shore of Keuka Lake, in Barrington. It has its store, church, post office and school house, two casket factories, and last but not least, a cluster of splendid houses, backed on the east by the beautiful vine-clad hills and faces on the west by the silvery waters of lake Keuka, - the dreamland of the soul through the heated season of summer. It is in the midst of the grape-growing region, and at this landing hundreds of tons of grapes and shipped annually. Some of the principal grape growers in the town are Joseph CROSBY, J. EAGLESTON, I. CROSBY, C. PLASTED, Estate G. BULLOCK, H. BULLOCK, E. EDWARDS, A. AMADON, S. LAMONT, George FENTON, and hundreds of others. The basket factories deserve more than a passing notice. The proprietor of one is Hermon BULLOCK, that of the other, George FENTON. Ten years ago the baskets were bunched up in dozens and sold by the dozen - a small pony business. But the demand has grown so rapidly that the mills have been furnished with all modern machinery for manufacturing baskets, and the largest logs are sawed and sliced out and turned until ready for the baskets; and this year the output of baskets from both factories is 1,500,000, giving employment to twenty-five or thirty men and to fifty or sixty girls. The Bullock mills do the sawing and cutting for the Mc Math and Morgan factories of Penn Yan. The Fenton mills furnish the Niagara Grape Company with 100,000 baskets annually. Peaches, currants and raspberries are raised to quite an extent, and other small fruit, so that evaporators may be counted by the dozen all over the town. Among the largest raspberry growers of the town at present are Delmer KNAPP and D. B. CORNELL. The largest apple orchard is owned by D. B. CORNELL, consisting of fifteen acres and twenty varieties. There are six steamboat landings in Barrington: Fenton, North and South Crosby, J. Eagleston, Hawk and S. Eagleston.

In the spring of 1865, when the country was crazy with oil speculation, indications of petroleum were believed to exist wherever gases of an inflammable character escaped from the earth. A "deer lick" on lot 50 in Barrington affording rice appearances of this sort, a company was formed in the vicinity to bore for oil. At a depth of forty-three feet, the water came up so abundantly it was difficult to go farther. This was soon found to have medicinal virtues, for which it has acquired a great fame. Erastus WRIGHT and Benson SMITH, becoming proprietors of the location, erected, in 1867, a house of four stories, one hundred feet long, and fort-two wife, with a two story wing seventy by thirty-two feet. The place has become a very popular resort, and very many people who have tested the virtues of the water have believed themselves much benefited by its use. The flow of water is sufficient to fill a two inch tub constantly. A house was opened at the Spring by Sylvester BOWERS in 1866, before the larger structure was built.

No account has been furnished the writer of more than five distilleries that ever existed in Barrington. One of them was on the Gore operated by John C. BODINE; another by John CARR near his grist mill.

Lorenzo D. SNOOK, of Barrington, a young man of twenty-four, a son of Oliver SNOOK, and grandson of Locowick DISBROW, is an industrious and prolific writer for agricultural publications, a regular contributor to the Rural New Yorker and other papers. He adds interest and value to his articles in the use of his pencil by giving ingenious and tasteful illustrations of his subjects. He has received many commendations from the agricultural papers for his contributions.

Joshua RAPLEE is one of the largest land owners of Barrington, and a farmer who has taken much interest in cultivation of stock especially sheep and horses of the best quality.

Near the Lake within the past few years grapes have been extensively planted with good success. The leading cultivators are Joseph F. CROSBY, Amos EGLESTON, Isaac CROSBY, Alanson CROSBY, Selah CROSBY, George W. FINTON, Arthur O. KANE and Ogden WORTMAN. Delazon J. SUNDERLIN and his sons have also been very successful cultivators of grapes on their premises near the Crystal Spring.

Chubb Hollow, a valley which forms the bed of the north branch of Big Stream, was so named for Philo CHUBB, who was for many years a resident in that locality. He is no longer a citizen of the town.

Barrington has now but two churches, one Baptist and one Methodist.

William OVENSHERE states that Barrington was so named, by residents of the town who came from Great Barrington, Massachusetts, in honor of the place from which they emigrated.

Organization of the Town and Town Officers

History & Directory of Yates Co., Vol 1, Pub 1873, by Stafford C. Cleveland, Pg 164 – 166

When Steuben county was organized, all that now forms the towns of Tyrone, Wayne, Reading, Starkey and Barrington, was included in the town of Fredrickton, so named in honor of Frederick BARTLES, a German, who built a mill at the outlet of Mud Lake in 1793, under the patronage of Charles WILLIAMSON.

Afterwards, Reading was cut off, and the town of Wayne organized, including what is now Barrington. Finally in 1822 the town of Barrington was created with its present boundaries and in 1826 it was added with Starkey to Yates county. The first town meeting was held February 24th, 1823, at the house of Daniel RAPALEE (the old Teeples place), Richard EDDY was elected Supervisor; Daniel RAPALEE, Town Clerk; Joseph MC CAIN, Collector; James A. SWARTHOUT, Jeremiah SHAW, and Lodowick DISBROW, Commissioners of Highways; Ephraim BENNETT, Matthew MC DOWELL and Robert ARMSTRONG, Commissioners of Schools; Ira CHURCH, Matthew KNAPP and Tippett SUNDERLIN, Assessors; Ezekiel BLUE and Victor PUTNAM, Overseers of the Poor; Joseph MC CAIN, Elijah BAKER and Peter PUTNAM Jr., Constables; Dennis SUNDERLIN, Richard EDDY and Ira SUNDERLIN, Inspectors of Common Schools; Daniel RAPALEE, Pound Master. The subsequent Supervisors have been:

1824 – 1827 Alexander PATTEN
1828 Ephraim BENNETT
1829 Ahser SPICER
1830 -1831 James A. SWARTHOUT
1832 – 1833 Stephen ROBINSON
1834 – 1835 Ezekiel BLUE
1836 – 1837 John SPICER
1838 – 1839 Levi KNOX
1840 – 1842 Lodowick DISBROW
1843 – 1844 George W. WOLCOTT
1845 Martin HOLMES
1846 – 1847 John WRIGHT
1848 – 1849 Archibald CAMPBELL
1850 Chauncey BOYCE
1851 – 1852 Daniel DISBROW
1853 William KINNE
1854 Martin HOLMES
1855 Samuel V. MILLER
1856 Daniel DISBROW
1857 Joseph CROSBY
1858 Samuel WILLIAMS
1859 George N. WILSON
1860 Abel WARD
1861 Peter H. CROSBY
1862 Jonathan TAYLOR
1863 – 1864 Asa P. FISH
1865 – 1866 Delazon J. SUNDERIN
1867 Benson SMITH
1868 Jesse C. KNAPP
1869 Sackett B. WIXSON

The town meetings ere held for many years at the Daniel RAPALEE tavern, afterwards kept by Levi KNOX, and finally by James KETCHAM, until Warsaw became a center of sufficient importance to eclipse this ancient stand. The place is now owned by Lewis MC CONNELL.

Amos C. WEST, it is said, was the first school teacher in Barrington and taught in 1810, a school not far from the Teeples neighborhood. WEST afterwards kept a tavern at the foot of Keuka Lake. James A. JACKSON, a stammering man, and the father of Gen. Daniel JACKSON, now of Watkins, taught a term quite early, attended by children from Barrington, in a log school house, on Jonathan BAILEY's old place in Milo. Ezra WINSHIP, who lived in Jerusalem, taught in 1815, near the Teeple's tavern, called the Knapp district. Richard EDDY, Enoch DE CAMP, Selah CROSBY, Ira SUNDERLIN, elder Jonathan KETCHUM, James L. SEELEY, George W. SIMMONS, Sarah LOUNSBURY, Semantha ROBINSON, Daniel BATEMAN, Mr. VAN CROFT and Lizzie STEWART were also early teachers in that town.

The population of Barrington decreased four hundred in the twenty- five years including between 1840 and 1865, and in 1825 it was larger by 630 than in 1865. From 1840 to 1850. the decrease was 338.

Hi Betty,

Sorry to say, these particular names are not familiar to me. The Shaw family married into my SMITH line of Manchester, Ontario, NY, and some of them were in Wayne Co. I don't have much on the SHAW name at all, to be of any help to you. Sorry I can't be of more help.

I assume you've been to both Rootsweb and USgennet sites for Ontario Co?

<http://www.usgennet.org/usa/ny/county/ontario/> There is also a url for Yates Co. at the bottom of the home page. Perhaps you might find something there, if you haven't looked already.

Good luck to you in your Shaw/Fitch adventure.

Dianne

Subject: Jeremiah Shaw and Betsey Fitch

Hello Diane,

I found your name on-line as a researcher of the Shaw family, or related families, of Yates and Ontario counties, New York.

My interest in this family is to prove the parenthood of Betsey Fitch, wife of Jeremiah Shaw III. My husband is a Fitch and we stumbled across a few items that led us to think that it might have been possible that Betsey was the daughter of John Fitch of Falls, Luzerne Co. (now Wyoming Co.) PA.

So my question to you was, "Do you happen to know who Betsey Fitch's parents were?"

John Fitch moved from Connecticut to Luzerne Co., about 1788 and although the Comfort Shaw family was from that same place, I found that Jeremiah was from a different line (or seemed to be). While we were doing research we found two records that though not convincing gave us a little insight on Betsey. The first one is the marriage record of Betsey and Jeremiah as stated below. This was listed in the marriages of Luzerne Co., PA. At that time Bradford Co., was apparently still a part of Luzerne.

 June 5, 1803.. Jeremiah Shaw, Jr., Sheshequin, married Betsey Fitch

Found in records of marriages and deaths published in Wilkes-Barre Gazette, Dec. 5, 1797 to Dec. 8, 1800 and Luzerne Co. Federalist, Jan. 12, 1801 to Dec. 28, 1809, published in Wilkes-Barre, PA. Proceedings of Wyoming Historical and Geological Society, Vol. 7, page 211.

The actual transcription of the newspaper article says this: "JEREMIAH SHAW, JUN. married to MISS BETSEY FITCH, on the 5th inst (same month as reported), at Sheshequin, by Rev'd Elisha Hutchinson, both of Sheshequin"

 The second was found by a person who did research for the Fitch family in the 1940's.

Saturday, September 03, 2005 America Online: WFitch5413

It concerned a day of baptisms that had taken place in the church at Stamford, CT. The date was May 20, 1784 and we find 3 baptisms that day.

BETSEY FITCH, daughter of John and Molly Fitch
A son of Samuel Fitch and Olive Stuart
And a child of John and Eunice Lockwood.

(The really interesting thing is that Samuel Fitch was a relative of our John Fitch and John Lockwood was the brother of his first wife, Elizabeth Lockwood Fitch. So we see a possible connection here all coming to Stamford on the same day to have their babies baptized. Why Stamford?? I have no idea, but they were all from north Norwalk, CT.)

This was important to us because it was a possible link to the family when it moved to Luzerne Co., PA. John Fitch's first wife had died before 1783 (when her father had passed away.....she was called deceased in father's will) She was Elizabeth Lockwood. She and John had 3 children. Tradition says that John married twice. A land contract shows that one deed had John's wife Mary on it. (Mary and Molly often interchanged) So this was brought to our attention in the 1970's and we are still trying to sort out this John and Molly Fitch, and their daughter Betsey.

Then when we saw the marriage of Betsey Fitch in 1803 meaning that she would have been about 19 years old and a good age to marry and it was done in Luzerne Co. we knew we needed to find out more about it. Also in 1806 a daughter of John Fitch, Sally married and was in the records. However with Betsey, her parents were not mentioned in the records. The actual records appear to have been lost when Wilkes Barre had a bad flood.

I am sure that the Betsey who married Jeremiah Shaw is the couple in the marriage listed above and they are the couple who took their family to New York. The family history says so, but doesn't give anything any further about what happened to them.

I did find the burial records and they were both buried in Lords Cemetery at Gorham, Ontario Co., NY. There Betsey is given a death date of Jan. 1, 1846 aged 63 y, 7 m, 23 d. Figuring back that seems to give her a birthdate of June of 1782. We have a conflict with that date because John had a son, Nathaniel, born Feb. 12, 1782. I understand that the dates are often either read wrong or copied wrong so can never really count on what the tombstone might say. (This same inscription said that Jeremiah was the son of Jeremiah Shaw and Phebe Wilbore and this was not at all true. He was the son of Jeremiah and Abigail. Three Jeremiah's in a row.

Didn't mean to write a book, and you may not be into this line of the family at all. Your name was just listed as a Shaw researcher. And I know there were a lot of Shaws. But if you have found the parentage for Betsey Fitch in any of your Shaw research, I would like to know if this is our Betsey, or does she belong to another family??

My husband would be in the line of her brother, Nathaniel Fitch, whose son Nathaniel, Jr. walked to Indiana and was one of the first settlers of this area. So Betsey is an "aunt" of some sorts. That is if we can find who her parents are!

Thanks for listening. If you have nothing on Betsey then at least I may have given you the marriage date. I didn't see anyone in my research that had it listed.

Betty Fitch, wife of Warren, whose GGGGGaunt might be Betsey!

George, Ellen, Charles, Gertrude, Frank, Monroe and Adelbert."

9.	Comfort Shaw	1760-1833	Dutchess, N.Y.		Exeter, Wyo. PA
10.	Comfort Shaw	1786	Exeter, Wyo. Co., PA

Dates on the two Daniels present a little problem. There is only 14 years between the births. Possible the dates may be incorrect.

JEREMIAH SHAW

1.	Thomas Shaw	1583-1575	Halifax, York, Eng.	Same	Same
2.	Thomas Shaw	1563-1599	Northowram, Halifax	Same	Same

9.	Jeremiah III	1780-1843	Dutchess, NY	Wyom., PA

These Shaws appear to be of the same lineage back about 7 generations. Followed the same course to America back then and did not stray very far apart. Both lines include Mass, Rhode Island, New York, and Pennsylvania. Both families settled on the Susquehanna in Pennsylvania but in different counties.

9.	Comfort Shaw Mary Molly Billings	1760-1833	Dutchess, N.Y.	1783	Exeter, Wyo. PA
10.	Comfort Shaw	1786	Exeter, Wyo. Co., PA

Dates on the two Daniels present a little problem. There is only 14 years between the births. Possible the dates may be incorrect. In Looking at the marriage date of 1678 it is probably the year of his birth that is incorrect.

Linda,

I'm quite sure this is Rev. William Shaw born 1741 that you are speaking of. He graduated from Harvard College in 1762 and lived in Marshfield, Plymouth, MA. He had at least 3 other brothers who were ministers at graduates of Harvard: Rev. Oakes Shaw grad 1758, father of Chief Justice of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, Rev. Bezaleel Shaw & Rev. John Shaw; other siblings were Eunice, Ruth, Ezra and Samuel.

They were the children of Rev. John Shaw (1708/9 - 4/29/1791 of Weymouth and later Bridgewater, and his wife Ruth Angier of Watertown, dau of Rev. Samuel

BRAMAN FITCH

JTF's Book 2, page 91

p. 283

Son of Capt. Benjamin Fitch and Eunice Lucy BRAMAN @ ANNA BRAMAN

Baptised June 17, 1798, Pawlet, Rutland Co., VT

Died December 2, 1820, West Rupert, Bennington Co., VT

Married Dorcas Pratt, dau. of James Pratt, Sr. and Sarah Lucy (Giles) Pratt,

December 2, 1813

Braman and family were at Brighton, Ontario Co., NY in 1820

Had one son and two daughters

SALLY, SARAH FITCH from Karen's Aunt Mary's genealogy. She has a Sarah Fitch daughter of Matthew Fitch II and Sarah Reed, having married a Vandevener, and 2nd a Champlain.

LODOWICK CHAMPLAIN FITCH, son of Rev. Elisha Fitch (see Vol. 1, page 286, and Vol 2, page 101.

Born Lyme, New London, CT, February 9, 1788

Died West Bloomfield, Ontario Co., New York, April 20, 1854.

Married twice. 1. Sarah Sophia Hitchcock 2. Sarah Steward Dean

(Rev. Elisha, Benjamin, Benjamin, Samuel, James)

His mother was Nancy Ann Champlain.

ALBERT FITCH, check out the genealogy of Bob Wallace as he has a Thomas Fitch and Nancy Carver who had a son Henry who married Rebecca Bowman and then had a son Albert. They ended up in Ohio though and Bob Wallace had them coming down from the Thomas Fitch family.

POMEROY FITCH, son of Joshua, Jr., Vol. 2, page 697

Born probably Bristol, Ontario Co., NY, 1834

Married Clara Nennetta Torrey 1855

Clara was born probably in Gorham, Chenango Co., Ny, June 14, 1834.

Joshua

Joshua, Jr.<sup>A</sup> (Jonathan, Joshua, Nathaniel, James)

ARCHIBALD SHAW from Vol. 2, page 765

Married Hannah Virginia Fitch (Dewitt Clinton, Harris, Azel, Capt. Azel, Joseph, James)

Residence given as Lawrenceburg, Dearborn Co., IN and lists names of 8 children.

Some of these pertain to this Ontario County group of Fitches and Shaws and some may not. The facts here were sent to me by K K Fitch and she used the books she has of John T. Fitch and his Rev. James Fitch genealogies.

Whip yard, shampoo, shower, etc., is on the agenda for me this afternoon.<BR>

Me, been very busy working on transferring files from one computer, to<BR>

the other. Finally figured it out. Was soooo simple, had to quit trying<BR> to figure out the reason it took three days to accomplish such a simple<BR> task. Sure do wear myself out, for no reason, more often than not. Now<BR> have most important files installed into new one. 5+ years of<BR>accumulation in the desktop, will take a good bit of concentration which<BR>

I shall pass on this day. Juno, maps, et My Word Docs. were very high on<BR>

the list, and have been completed, with the exception of some of the OLD<BR>

My Documents that are buried in other areas of wheresoever. Have yet to<BR> decided what I will do with the old desktop, so it can just sit where it<BR> is for now. Will try to sell the old laptop. It's only 2 1/2 years old.<BR>

After making certain that I have moved all that is important, will try<BR> to find a reasonable selling price. Probably be soon, as I'll be getting<BR>

the bill for this one, S O O N....<BR><BR> eBay is a bit time consuming. Was hoping that I might get a fair price<BR> for my well cared for, computer accessories, et stuff. So far, not the<BR> case, but am learning. <BR><BR>

Am checking JT's Vol. 2, as I reread this email. Will list some info<BR> found, next to each name. You wrote: "Fitches listed in Ontario County,<BR>

Whig John Smith was born at Coram, Suffolk County, New York and spent much of his life there. At some point later in life he and his wife Abigail appear to have moved to Blue Point, Suffolk County, NY, possibly to be near their two daughters who married men from Blue Point. And still later they migrated to Scott Township, Wayne County, PA.

In checking for census records for Jeremiah Shaw and Betsey Fitch found the following census records for Uriah Smith. Two families are a possibility for Uriah and Sally, but so far have not found proof. First the information on Uriah who seems to be living in PA.

1820 Census of Buckingham Township, Wayne Co., PA

Uriah Smith ~~301101~~ 21010 (310010 males)

3 males under 10.....1810-1820

1 male 10 to 16 .....1804-1810

1 male 26 to 45.....1775-1794

2 females under 10.....1820-1820

1 female 10 to 16 .....1804-1810

1 female 26 to 45.....1775-1794

All of the above seems to fit our Uriah and Sally. Married in 1806 with 1 boy and 1 girl by 1810

5 more born after 1810. The age of Uriah is right as well as the age of Sally would fit in to Sally of the Fitch family.

1830 Census of

Uriah Smith.....200120100 021110100

This makes this Uriah Smith born 1780-1790 which is correct for him

Makes his wife born 1780-1790 which could be very correct for her.

I can find neither Uriah Smith or Sally Smith in the 1840 census (or Sarah).

In 1850 we find this in Scott Township, Wayne Co., PA

Uriah T. Smith.....23.....Farmer.....born PA 1827

Wesley T. Smith.....20.....born PA 1830

Sarah Smith.....62.....Female.....born NY (except for the NY place of birth this might be our Sally Fitch.....62 gives her a birthdate of 1787/88/89.....the only way Sally could have been born in NY was if she was born on their trip to PA from CT. They would have passed through NY.

At the same place we find:

John F. Smith.....41.....born NY .....1809 (1860 census gives born PA)

Lois Smith.....37.....born PA .....1813

Benjamin Smith.....12.....born PA .....1838

Roderick Smith.....10.....born PA .....1840

John W. Smith.....8 .....born PA .....1842

Uriah Smith.....4 .....born PA .....1846

To me this makes a lot of sense except for the birth of Sarah and maybe John F. in New York. This appears to be the family of Uriah and Sally. Note the birthdate for Sarah "Sally" is very close and the fact that they named their first son John F. (John Fitch???)

If it is true it would indicate that Uriah and Sally's first son was John F. and they also had later sons who were Uriah T. and Wesley T. Then probably John F. named his son John.....John Wesley.

Best try for the 1860 to see if Sarah might still be alive.

1860 Census of Scott Twp., Wayne Co., PA

John F. Smith.....50.....born PA.....1810 .....Lumberman

Louis (prob Lois).....50.....born PA.....1810 (interesting as it is marked Male and older than the one named Lois (may be several errors here)

Benj Smith.....23.....born PA.....1837
Roderick Smith.....21.....born PA.....1839
John Smith.....19.....born PA.....1841
Uriah Smith.....15.....born PA.....1845
Mariel Smith.....15.....born PA.....1845.....male
Frank Smith.....13.....born PA.....1847
Louis Smith.....10.....born PA.....1850
Theressa Smith..... 8 .....born PA.....1852
Aliphant Smith..... 5 .....born PA.....1855
Eunice Smith.....3 .....born PA.....1857

This is certainly the same family and all listed as born in PA, even John F. this time. Louis and Lois may be a mystery, but are probably one and the same. Though seems to be listed as a male.

.....
Also back in Exeter, Luzerne PA we find this:

Thomas Smith.....37.....born PA .....1823
Louisa Smith.....25
Uriah Smith..... 9
Susanna Smith.....7
Charles Smith.....3
Zima Smith.....28

Could this be another child of Uriah and Sally?? Of course he might be of one of Uriah's siblings too.

There were a couple generations of Thomas's as great grandparents and back.

May be way off track but the fact that we found a Sarah who seems to be the head of the house in 1820 makes you think that it may be the correct family.

Though Thomas may be a son or sibling the John F. Smith does not fit in - So assume this family of Uriah b 1781 is not correct.

Hello Vern,

I have been doing research on Noah Smith and Lydia Fitch. Have found this reference on Ancestry.com and wondered if you could tell me where there was any confirmation of this marriage. I have seen it several places on line but no one seems to know when they were married or where Lydia comes from.

My interest is in Lydia Fitch. I understand that Noah Smith is the son of Hezekiah. They moved from Ridgefield, CT. to Luzerne Co., PA (which is now Wyoming Co). Hezekiah Smith and Paul Keeler owned and ran the Keeler Ferry for several year. Uriah Smith, brother of Noah, married Sally Fitch in Luzerne Co., PA, in 1806. Our Fitch family lived right across the Susquehanna river from the Smiths and the Keelers.

The John Fitch family had several daughters that we have been unable to identify by name. Sally is no doubt one of them. We might hope that Lydia is another, but would like some confirmation on the marriage of Noah and Lydia. Since several people have come up with Lydia Fitch as the wife of Noah Smith, there must be someone who has found it and am hoping I will be able to find that person.

Have been working on the identity of the Fitch girls for quite some time and have traced Uriah Smith and his wife Sarah (Sally) back to this family. Since Noah is Uriah's brother, it is likely that Lydia is of the same Fitch family, living and working right across the river from the Fitch home, but would like a little more proof.

If you have any information on Noah and Lydia, I would love to hear from you. I have much on the Fitch family as they are my husband's direct ancestors, coming from CT to Luzerne Co., PA about 1788.

Thanks for your help.

All this would put Uriah Smith, son of Hezekiah Smith is just the right place, across the river from the John Fitch farm, to get acquainted with "Sally" and marry her.

The second family I found was Uriah Smith and Sarah of New York. Found this family while looking for Jeremiah Shaw and Betsey again in New York. First noticed that there was a Uriah Smith living about 2 houses from Jeremiah and Betsey. Then also that there was a Noah living next to them. This caught my attention.....were this Betsey and Sarah the Fitch sisters??? In following the trail of this Uriah and Sarah this is what I found.

1820 Census of Steuben County, New York (Wayne Township) Living right next to Noah Smith. (See under Noah)
Uriah Smith 200010 129100 (1810 Jeremiah and Betsey were in Steuben Co., NY)

1830 Census of Barrington, Yates County, New York
Uriah Smith 0011001 0001101 (Noah is also on this report- see under Noah)
Uriah would have been 40 to 50 and born between 1780-1790
(1830 Jeremiah and Betsey were in Ontario, NY)

1840 Census Milo, Yates County, New York
Uriah Smith 00001001 00002001 (Noah is not there at this time)
Uriah would have been 50 to 60 and born between 1780-1790
(1840 Jeremiah and Betsey were in Ontario, NY)

1850 Census of Starkey, Yates County, New York
Uriah Smith was 65 and a shoemaker, and born in CT - correct
Sarah, named on this one, was 64, and born in CT - would be correct for our "Sally"
(1850 both Jeremiah and Betsey are dead)
(However, one son (Guy) is still living in Yates Co., NY and another (Gore) in Steuben Co., NY.

Jeremiah and Betsey were reported to have moved from Sheshequin to Canandagua NY. We find that Steuben and Yates and Ontario counties are all there together near the town of Canandagua. Both Uriah's seems to fit the description of this family except that I have not carried further this one in New York. If this is indeed Uriah and Sally, daughter of John Fitch, then there is a good possibility that Betsey was indeed also the daughter of John Fitch. Boundary lines of these counties may have changed during this period or the families may have made some slight moves themselves. To make this even more exciting, I factored in Noah's wife, who I found was named by one researcher as Lydia Fitch.....wow! OK was Lydia one of the younger Fitch girls?? We know there were a few that we did not have names for as they were never recorded anywhere. So here we have perhaps 3 Fitch sisters living in the same area. And then this Lydia Fitch Smith named a daughter, Betsey!

Will add the actual census reports here:

3 females under 10 1810-1820

1 female 16 to 26 1794-1804 prob. Lydia

1 female over 45 before 1765 - might this be Mary Fitch, mother of Lydia?

shows they had 3 daughters before 1820

1830 Census of Barrington, Yates County, New York

Noah Smith 0000001 1021010001

1 male 40 to 50 1780-1790 would be Noah

1 female under 5 1825-1830

2 females 10 to 15 1815-1820

1 female 15 to 20 1810-1815

1 female 30 to 40 1790-1800 prob. wife, Lydia

1 female 70 to 80 1760-1770 - Mary Fitch, mother of Lydia?

It appears that Noah probably has some parent or older relative living with him.

Appears to have 4 daughters between 1810 and 1830, and no sons

1840 Census of Prattsburg, Steuben, New York

Lydia Smith 0001.....012001

1 male 15 to 20 1820-1825 may be a relative. Shows no sign of son in other census records.

1 female 5 to 10 1830-1835

2 females 10 to 15 1825-1830

1 female 30 to 40 1800-1810 This appears to be too young to be our Lydia, but records are far from perfect.

Shows 3 females between 1825 and 1835. An older daughter may be married and gone from home or maybe even 2 daughters gone. If so there may have been 5 girls in the family.....if this is the same Lydia Smith who was Noah's wife. Could be an entirely different family. But appears that her husband is dead as she is listed as head of the home. And I do not find Noah anywhere.

John Fitch shows 5 females in the 1790 census.....would guess Betsey, Sally, wife Mary, and 2 others

John Fitch shows in 1800 ... 6 females

2 females under 10 1790-1800 ???

1 female 10 to 16 1784-1790 Betsey, Lydia?

2 females 16 to 26 1774-1784 Betsey, Sally

1 female over 45 bef 1755 Wife, Mary

John listed in the 1810 census of Tunkhannock Township: 1 male over 45, 1 female over 45, and 2 females between 16 and 26.

1 female over 45 .....born before 1765.....Mary

2 females 16 to 26.....1784 to 1794 .....unknown

Lydia may have been in this category and not yet married.

And there must have been at least one other daughter that we do not know about, maybe 2

We need to find a marriage date for Lydia and Noah.

Estimates for her birth ranged from 1787 to 1793.

Possibly married around 1814-1815 at the latest because of 3 children by 1820

Notes

Interesting census report in 1840. I was unable to find any Noah Smith that would fit into this family in 1840 but did find a Lydia Smith. May or may not be the Lydia we are looking for, but still in the same county.

1840 Census of Prattsburg, Steuben County, New York

Lydia Smith 0001 012001

1 male 15 to 20 1820-1825
1 female 5 to 10 1830-1835
2 females 10 to 15 1825-1830
1 female 30 to 40 1800-1810

Only other Smith on the page is a Whitman who appear to be about the same age as Lydia with 2 small boys. Also interesting is a David King on this same page a few houses away.

1840 Census of Prattsburg, Steuben County, New York

David King 2111001 1121001

2 males under 5
1 male 5 to 10
1 male 10 to 15
1 male 15 to 10
1 male 40 to 50 1790-1800
1 female under 5
1 female 5 to 10
2 females 10 to 15
1 female 15 to 20
1 female 40 to 50 1790-1800

Only added this because of the name. I know this is too young to be our David King, but wonder if he might have named a son David after his first wife, Elizabeth Fitch, died and he remarried. He had several children in the 1800 census after he had moved to PA. This David already has 10 children by 1840.

Points to prove the 3 girls might have been sisters.....Betsey, Sally, and Lydia

1. Betsey Shaw named one of her daughters, Lydia Shaw
  2. Lydia Smith named one of her daughters, Betsey Smith
  3. Sally named a child Lydia
- Morgan, son of Nathaniel Fitch, named a daughter Lydia, for an aunt??
Spencer, son of Nathaniel Fitch, named a daughter Lydia, for an aunt?? I can in no way guarantee that Lydia was a child of this family.
All we have is circumstantial evidence to that fact.
All the sisters I have here, Betsey, Sarah, and Lydia are somewhat in question
Connections are as follows:

Betsey Fitch married Jeremiah Shaw, Jr. in 1803 in Luzerne Co., Sheshequin
Sally Fitch, daughter of John Fitch, married Uriah Smith in Luzerne Co in 1806
Noah Smith was Uriah's brother; they were living across the river from the Fitch family
Noah Smith was said to have married Lydia Fitch.
Thus I can see possibly that the 3 girls were sisters.
We find them individually living in 1810 in different places
1820 and 1830 they are all living in the same neighborhood, only doors apart, in western New York
1840, 1850 Uriah and Sarah (Sally) are still living there
1840, Jeremiah and Betsy live just a little north
1840, no sign of Noah, but perhaps Lydia Smith in the same place is the wife of Noah and Noah is dead
Jeremiah and Betsy die in the 1840's

1825 Noah & Uriah in Barrington, Yates
1835 - Uriah
1855 - Uriah & Sarah

Notes

The following are the census reports for Noah Smith that I think pertain to this Noah, though I cannot be sure:

.....

1820 Census of Wayne Township, Steuben Co., NY
Noah Smith 000010 301010
1 male 26 to 45 1775-1794 would be Noah (born abt. 1787)
3 females under 10 1810-1820
1 female 16 to 26 1794-1804 prob. Lydia
1 female over 45 before 1765

shows they had 3 daughters before 1820

Noah Smith 0000001 1021010001
1 male 40 to 50 1780-1790 would be Noah
1 female under 5 1825-1830
2 females 10 to 15 1815-1820

1 female 30 to 40 1790-1800 prob. wife, Lydia
1 female 70 to 80 1760-1770
It appears that Noah probably has some parent or older relative living with him.
Appears to have 4 daughters between 1810 and 1830, and no sons

Issac Smith, when a boy, in crossing the river at Keeler's Ferry on the ice with a hand sled, loaded with flax, carelessly ran into an air hole. Noah Smith happened to see the flax drifting down stream, knowing his brother must be in the river, instantly ran and jumped in after him, got hold of him and swam to the edge of the ice where by the timely assistance of URIAH SMITH, another brother, and some other persons, both were rescued from a watery grave. (Note the 3 brothers, Isaac, Noah, and Uriah)

May be way off track but the fact that we found a Sarah who seems to be the head of the house in 1820 makes you think that it may be the correct family.

Since we have two different families and their information here will say that I am still leaning to the family in Yates Co. as being the correct one since we also have Jeremiah Shaw and Betsey, and Noah and Lydia Smith all living within a few doors of one another.

Also

Will add two daughters that seem to belong to Uriah and Sally. One whose name is Lydia.

We note then that Sally has a daughter named Lydia.

Betsey has a daughter named Lydia

Lydia has a daughter named Betsey

From the Family Search Beta Records:

Uriah SMITH

Sarah Smith.....62.....Female.....born NY (except for the NY place of birth this might be our Sally Fitch.....62 gives her a birthdate of 1787/88/89.....the only way Sally could have been born in NY was if she was born on their trip to PA from CT. They would have passed through NY.

1880 we find in Marseilles, LaSalle, Illinois the following family:

Uriah T. Smith.....married.....53.....born PA.....Livery man.....both parents born NY

Joicy Smith.....wife.....45.....born VA.....Keeps House.....Both parents born VA

Wesley E. Smith.....son.....16.....born KS.....At home.....Both parents born PA

Uriah W. Smith.....son.....15.....born KS.....At home.....Both parents born PA

Louella Smith.....daughter.....9.....born MO.....Both parents born PA

Florence G. Smith.....daughter.....5.....born MO.....Father born PA; mother born VA

Forest Smith.....son.....1.....born MO.....Father born PA; mother born VA

You will notice that the mother of the last 2 girls was listed as from VA.

Might she be a second wife then??? And the first three belong to a first wife???

At the same place (Scott Township, Wayne Co., PA) we find:

John F. Smith.....41.....born NY .....1809 (1860 census gives born PA)

Lois Smith.....37.....born PA .....1813

Benjamin Smith.....12.....born PA .....1838

Roderick Smith.....10.....born PA .....1840

John W. Smith.....8.....born PA .....1842

Uriah Smith.....4.....born PA .....1846

To me this makes a lot of sense except for the birth of Sarah and maybe John F. in New York. This appears to be the family of Uriah and Sally. Note the birthdate for Sarah "Sally" is very close and the fact that they named their first son John F. (John Fitch???)

If it is true it would indicate that Uriah and Sally's first son was John F. and they also had later sons who were Uriah T. and Wesley T. Then probably John F. named his son John.....John Wesley.

Best try for the 1860 to see if Sarah might still be alive.

1860 Census of Scott Twp., Wayne Co., PA

John F. Smith.....50.....born PA.....1810 .....Lumberman

Louis (prob Lois).....50.....born PA.....1810 (interesting as it is marked
